SCOUTING AMERICA TRAINING CONTINUUM

FUNDAMENTALS PART 2

CRAFT OF TRAINING

COURSE OVERVIEW

Refine your presentation abilities and master experiential learning. As the second vital part of the train-the-trainer continuum, this course provides an interactive forum for developing trainers to actively practice and polish their abilities.

Through direct presentation practice alongside structured peer and expert faculty feedback loops, you will hone the craft of instruction. This session directly supplements the training development sessions offered during advanced leadership faculty tracks.

> Prerequisite: Fundamentals Part 1: Science of Training (Available online). Must be completed prior to attending Part 2.
