Course #	Course	Course Description	Period 2	Period 3	Period 4	Period 5	Period 6	Period 7	Instructor
		COLLEGE OF SCOUTS BSA	9:40-10:30	10:40-11:30	11:40-12:50	1:00-1:50	2:00-2:50	3:00-3:50
205SB	Scout Merit Badge Counselor Orientation	A class for new and potential merit badge counselors. Understand your duties and responsibilities as a MB Counselor and the methods of counseling and coaching Scouts.	x		Lunch				Jeff Neuman
240SB	The Key Three. A Powerful Scouting Team!	The Unit Key Three is an important team that makes a huge different in your Unit's success. Learn about the roles and responsibilities of not only your Unit Key Three, but the District, the Council, the Area and National, and how we support each other in the World of Scouting.	x		Lunch				Randy Huffman, Oren Noah, Joy Salo, Mark Manchester
241SB	Backpacking: Prepared!	Backpacking differs a lot from car camping, and also provides some unique benefits, but some units are at a loss for where they can go and/or intimidated by the planning required. Come and find out more about the details involved and how people manage it.	x		Lunch				Todd Tamura
243SB	Impactful Board of Reviews	Learn how Board of Reviews can be an amazing opportunity to get to know your Scouts better, as well as providing Scouts the opportunity to learn to converse with adults in setting similar to a job interview.	x		Lunch				Ray Leonard
244SB	Miwok District Eagle Advisors	Mentoring Life Scouts through the planning and execution of their Eagle projects, the Eagle workbook and the Eagle Scout application.	x		Lunch				Jenn Masterson
325SB	The Scoutmaster Minute	The Scoutmaster Minute is an opportunity! Everyone is listening, and there is nothing after it--so you can leave them with something to think about. Share ideas and get some new ones on how to take advantage of this time.		x	Lunch				Todd Tamura
338SB	Hazardous Weather Training	Required every two years! Review or Learn about assessing and mitigating outdoor weather risks, including lightning, extreme heat and hydration, hypothermia, high winds, flash floods, and severe storms.		x	Lunch				TBD
341SB	First Class to Eagle Scout Rank	Congrats! Your Scout made it to First Class! Now the pressure begins with added school responsibility, outside friendships, sports and cars. Learn some ideas to help your Scouts attain Eagle in the midst of all the noise.		x	Lunch				Ray Leonard
342SB	First Aid for Scout Leaders	Chances are when you go on an outing, someone will most likely get hurt; a cut, a scrape, a bump, or pull. Learn common injuries, what to look for & how to treat them.		x	Lunch				Bryan Smith

Course #	Course	Course Description	Period 2	Period 3	Period 4	Period 5	Period 6	Period 7	Instructor
		COLLEGE OF SCOUTS BSA	9:40-10:30	10:40-11:30	11:40-12:50	1:00-1:50	2:00-2:50	3:00-3:50
512SB	Snow Camping with your Troop	Learn the important details of how to take your troop Snow Camping. Class will include preparation, gear list, venues, and how to stay warm!			Lunch	x			TBD
530SB	Urban Hikes for Scout Troops	The T-21 Urban Hike is a special event, and one that our Scouts love. It's easily planned and executed and brings so many benefits, but it does require thoughtful design in order to achieve objectives (as opposed to just walking across the city).			Lunch	x			TBD
546SB	Team Building for Scout Troops	Do your patrols have fun together? Are the members of your troop friends with each other? Here are some ideas to build the camaraderie and team spirit within your patrols and troop.			Lunch	x			Dani Ing
548SB	Safe Swim Defense	All BSA units must have Scouters certified in Safe Swim Defense for swimming activities. Earn this certificate now so you'll be all ready to take your Scouts to those aquatic activities.			Lunch	x			Bob Bimbi
549SB	Troop Annual Calendar Planning	No one plans to fail, but some fail to plan. Learn how to coach your youth leadership team into developing a successful calendar.			Lunch	x			Tom Denson
601SB	Scouting America Troops for girls	Developing a successful implementation of the Scouting America vision for all girl or linked or family troops for boys and girls, and the challenges along the way.			Lunch		x		Eleanor Henderson
603SB	ILST Training for your Youth Leaders	Where do your Scouts learn leadership skills? Find out how to conduct an ILST (Introduction to Leadership Skills Training) in your unit.			Lunch		x		Tim Graves
620SB	Ascending Adventures	Join us to learn the requirements necessary to facilitate a Challenge by Choice climbing program with Safety at its core. Participants will complete Climb On Safely the course as part of this class			Lunch		x		Eric Bermender
633SB	Safety Afloat	All BSA units must have Scouters certified in Safety Afloat for boating activities. Earn this certificate now so you'll be all ready to take your Scouts to those aquatic activities.			Lunch		x		Bob Bimbi
722SB	Oh, the Places You'll Camp	Is your troop always going to the same summer camps, or outings? Find out how to take your troop to a summer camp in Wyoming, Oregon, or to Catalina Island. Or on a long adventure to Death Valley, or the Lava Beds. It's not as hard as you might think!			Lunch			x	David Shenton
735SB	Pomo District Eagle Advisors	Mentoring Life Scouts through the planning and execution of their Eagle projects, the Eagle workbook and the Eagle Scout application.			Lunch			x	Sherry Kearney

Course #	Course	Course Description	Period 2	Period 3	Period 4	Period 5	Period 6	Period 7	Instructor
		COLLEGE OF SCOUTS BSA	9:40-10:30	10:40-11:30	11:40-12:50	1:00-1:50	2:00-2:50	3:00-3:50
742SB	Troop Finances	Does your troop have a budget? What are your expenses? How do you cover the costs of Scouting? Do parents just write our checks? Learn ways to plan your troop finances using the Scouting method of a Scout pays their own way.			Lunch			x	Janet Pickett

Course #	Course	Course Description	Period 2	Period 3	Period 4	Period 5	Period 6	Period 7	Instructor
		COLLEGE OF CUB SCOUTING	9:40-10:30	10:40-11:30	11:40-12:50	1:00-1:50	2:00-2:50	3:00-3:50
263CS	Outdoors made easy-Pack & Webelos Den Camping	Take your Cub Scout Packs and Webelos Dens camping! Have fun when you get there. Learn great ideas of places to go camping and program activities to keep Cub Scouts involved and excited about the great out-of-doors.	x		Lunch				TBD
268CS	MOVO: It's Already Talking to your Families	MOVO, Scouting America's new AI assistant, is now live for every unit in our council and answers prospective families who find you on BeAScout.org. Come find out what it's telling people about your pack, how to make sure its answers are right, and how to follow up so no new family slips away.	x		Lunch				Will Drayton
272CS	First Aid for Cub Scout Leaders	In Scouting, first aid knowledge begins with a Bobcat. Learn more about first aid so you can teach your Cub Scouts, and help your Webelos and AOL's earn their activity pins.	x		Lunch				Bryan Smith
361CS	Basic Cub Scout Knots	There are six knots and hitches that Cub Scouts are required to learn! Here is your chance to learn them so you have the confidence and resources to teach others.		x	Lunch				Eleanor Henderson
366CS	Cub Scout Gathering Activities	Having a well prepared Den or Pack Meeting includes Gathering Games. Come learn, and share great ideas for Gathering Games that get's your meeting off to a great start.		x	Lunch				Angie Chavez
367CS	Fishing Basics for Cub Scouts	This a session to introduce Cub Scout leaders to freshwater fishing skills like casting, knot tying, safety, and equipment setup. This prepares leaders to lead fishing events while emphasizing outdoor ethics, safety, and conservation to ensure fun and responsible angling experiences.		x	Lunch				Nick Bel & Robert Wilson
565CS	Cub Scout Songs, Games, Skits for Pack mtgs & Campfires	Yes, all Cub Scouts love to do the same skits, songs and games over and over. Get some great new ideas for adding sparkle to your Campfires, Den and Pack meetings.			Lunch	x			Angie Chavez

Course #	Course	Course Description	Period 2	Period 3	Period 4	Period 5	Period 6	Period 7	Instructor
		COLLEGE OF CUB SCOUTING	9:40-10:30	10:40-11:30	11:40-12:50	1:00-1:50	2:00-2:50	3:00-3:50
567CS	Cub Scout Power Pack Meetings	Make your Pack meetings more than a monthly advancement ceremony. Add energy, excitement and variety. Discuss discipline, managing the clock, meeting participation and organization.			Lunch	x			Monica Merga Donohue & Raquel
569CS	Woodcraft for Cub Scouts	Learning about wood tools, and completing easy woodworking projects is a lot of fun for Cub Scouts. Come find out ideas on how to make thissuccessfully happen with your Cub Scouts.			Lunch	x			Dave Spangler
654CS	Cub Scout Fun Outings	Places to go, people to see, things to do! There are literally hundreds of places to take your Cub Scouts to. Come learn about some of our favorites.			Lunch		x		Peggy Bimbi
670CS	Fire Building Start to Finish	What is a Cub Scout camping trip without a Fire? Come learn ways to teach your scouts how to safely and responsibly build fires that add to the magic of Cub Scouting. You may even learn to light a fire without a match, or flint and steel.			Lunch		x		Simon Harding
762CS	Keeping Webelos & AOL's Engaged in Cub Scouts	Fourth and fifth graders often feel like they have already "done everything" in Cub Scouts. Learn ideas and create milestones that younger dens aren't allowed to do.			Lunch			x	Robert Wilson
765CS	How to plan and carry out a Pinewood Derby for Cub Scouts	What is a Pinewood Derby? What's the big deal about Pinewood Derby cars? How do you make it all happen and manage to keep (almost) everyone happy? Come learn from those who have Been there. Done that.			Lunch			x	Daren Morse
770CS	Recruiting Cub Scouts	Learn techniques and strategies for recruiting new Cubs and leaders. Learn how to recruit, train and retain adults, too.			Lunch			x	Dani Ing-Mize

Course #	Course	Course Description	Period 2	Period 3	Period 4	Period 5	Period 6	Period 7	Instructor
		COLLEGE OF GENERAL EDUCATION	9:40-10:30	10:40-11:30	11:40-12:50	1:00-1:50	2:00-2:50	3:00-3:50
280ES	Scoutmaster Resources for Working with Scouts with Special Needs	National Statistics show 1 out of every 7 Scouts has a special need. A large percentage of those are invisible disabilities. Scouting offers tools to work with them. Come learn how to navigate the resources to support you.	x		Lunch				Ann Bruner-Welch
292ES	From the Outdoor Code to the DCSA: Scouting's Legacy of Conservation	Discover how Scouting has driven America's conservation for over a century, transforming youth into the largest environmental volunteer workforce in history. Explore this legacy and walk away with a plan to help your scouts achieve the Distinguished Conservation Service Award.	x		Lunch				Nick Bel

Course #	Course	Course Description	Period 2	Period 3	Period 4	Period 5	Period 6	Period 7	Instructor
		COLLEGE OF COMBINED COURSES	9:40-10:30	10:40-11:30	11:40-12:50	1:00-1:50	2:00-2:50	3:00-3:50
372ES	Advancement for Scouts with Special Needs	Modifications or Accommodations. What is and isn't allowed to support Scouts with unique needs. What documentation is needed to support your Scouts when accommodations are needed.		x	Lunch				Ann Bruner-Welch
377ES	Scout Camp Leadership	When your unit attends a scout camp, there is a typical onsite and offsite leadership structure. We'll cover the titles and roles, what dictates that structure, and the qualifications those leaders have to serve in those positions. We'll discuss how you can get involved.		x	Lunch				Jeff Neuman
381ES	LED Neckerchief Slides and more	Are you ready to shine? Just spend one hour with Michael Polkinghorn and he will illuminate you!		x	Lunch				Michael Polkinghorn
572ES	Why Summer Camp Matters	Geared toward new Scoutmasters and other volunteers who want to get more involved in the summer camp process. We'll cover topics like how summer camp supports retention, how to choose the right camp for your unit, and ways to encourage more Scouts to attend.			Lunch	x			Joy Salo
575ES	MESH-Mental, Emotional, and Social Health	Working with adolescents is far more complex now than ever. Come and learn how to recognize when a youth is starting to struggle, and how you can best support them. Also learn the warning signs telling you a Youth may need more than you have to offer, and how to access help when you need it most.			Lunch	x			Ann Bruner-Welch
588ES	CPR Part 1, 2 & 3	Need CPR with AED to take your troops on outings? Here is the perfect opportunity! You will be certified for two years after attending this 3 hour course. There is an additional fee of $55 due to the instructor.				x	x	x	Ken Johnson
680ES	Camping Considerations for Scouts with Special Needs and Disabilities	What units should consider when planning outings so they can provide a more inclusive program for their units. What already exists, and what resources are available to help you.			Lunch		x		Ann Bruner-Welch
683ES	Webelos to AOL to Scout Transition	Let's keep our Cub Scouts in Scouting! For the Cub Scout Dens & Packs, learn great ways to plan for your Webelos to transition into Scouts. For Scout Troops, learn ways to help Webelos transition to your Units. It takes everyone working together.			Lunch		x		Dave Smilie
685ES	All About Exploring Units	Come join us for a conversation on Exploring, the third largest program in the Scouting America family. See how hands-on career education works in our Clubs and Posts for youth membership 14 to 20 years old."			Lunch		x		Stuart Mahler

Course #	Course	Course Description	Period 2	Period 3	Period 4	Period 5	Period 6	Period 7	Instructor
		COLLEGE OF COMBINED COURSES	9:40-10:30	10:40-11:30	11:40-12:50	1:00-1:50	2:00-2:50	3:00-3:50
687ES	Use AI tools and workflows to make your unit management easier	Learn how AI can help with the communication and management of running a successful unit. See how to automate routine tasks and quickly build tools like a summer camp merit badge signup or a troop carpool tracker.			Lunch		x		Daren Morse
782ES	Working w/Scouts w/Autism Spect Disrdr (DT)	This class will review what Autism is, and how to best work with these scouts successfully within your unit.			Lunch			x	Ed Barnes & Gary Baysmore
785ES	Youth Management, tolerances & consequences, and parent comm.	Negative youth behaviour impacts everyone in your unit - and beyond. Where do you draw the line? We'll share ideas for setting tolerances, consequences and keeping parents involved.			Lunch			x	Dave Smilie
789ES	Philmont Treks & Cavalcades	There's no adventure like Philmont. For generations, Scouts have taken on new challenges, built lifelong friendships, and discovered the beauty of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains of New Mexico. Come learn how to make the adventure of a lifetime come to a reality.			Lunch			x	Michael Polkinghorn