WELCOME!

Welcome to Cub Haunted 2026 at Camp Jack Nicol! Join us October 16–18 or October 23–25 for a family-friendly Halloween campout filled with Scouting fun.

Bring the whole family—siblings welcome! Enjoy crafts, pumpkin carving, hayrides, Nine Square, target sports, a costume contest, Graveside Hikes, the Not So Spooky Trail, and the Haunted Castle. Activities offer something for families who like their Halloween silly, spooky, or somewhere in between.

Cub Haunted is an Adventure West Council family event. National and council safety rules apply, including youth supervision and medical-form requirements. Saturday lunch and dinner are provided to all registered participants. Breakfast is provided only to participants who camped the night before. Please bring your own Friday dinner, follow the event schedule, and show Scout spirit throughout the weekend.

We are excited to share a fun-filled fall weekend with your family!

Thank you for your support,

Adventure West Council Cub Activities Committee

General Information

Conduct

Cub Haunted is a family Scouting event. Follow the Scout Oath and Law, respect other campers, and follow all activity safety instructions. Inappropriate conduct may result in removal from an activity or the event.

Curfews

Quiet hours are 10:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. Friday and Saturday nights. Keep noise low and youth supervised in campsite areas.

Electronic Devices

Please use devices considerately and keep personal electronics secured. Camp activities are intended for outdoor family fun.

Equipment

Each family or unit is responsible for personal camping equipment and clothing. Saturday lunch and dinner are provided to all registered participants. Breakfast is provided only to participants who camped the night before.

Fire

There are no fire pits in the campsites. Fires are not permitted.

First Aid

First aid is available at the camp office near the parking lot. Report injuries or significant medical concerns to event staff. Keep required medical forms and medications accessible.

Honor

Turn found belongings in at the camp office. A Scout is trustworthy, helpful, and courteous.

Leave No Trace

Practice Leave No Trace: dispose of trash properly, respect wildlife, and leave activity and camping areas cleaner than you found them.

Leadership and Supervision

Parents, guardians, and unit leaders are responsible for appropriate supervision of the youth in their care throughout Cub Haunted. Follow current Scouting America youth-protection and overnight camping requirements.

Youth Protection

All adults and youth must follow applicable Scouting America youth-protection requirements, including supervision and tenting rules.

Ask event staff if you have a question about overnight accommodations or youth supervision.

Lost and Found

Bring found items to the camp office. Check there for missing belongings.

Medicines

Medications are the responsibility of the parent or guardian. Event staff will not collect, store, or dispense medications.

Personal Property

Label personal items, flashlights, jackets, costumes, and camping equipment.

Prohibited Activity (Alcoholic Beverages/Drugs/Smoking)

Alcohol, illegal drugs, and smoking are prohibited in Scouting event activity areas. Follow camp policies.

Restrooms

Restrooms are marked on the camp map. Showers will be off for the weekend. Ask event staff if you need assistance locating restrooms.

Trailers

Follow staff instructions for vehicle and trailer parking; do not block emergency access.

Uniforms

Scout uniforms are welcome for opening flags. Comfortable activity clothes, Class B T-shirts, and weather-appropriate costumes are suitable for the rest of the event.

Water

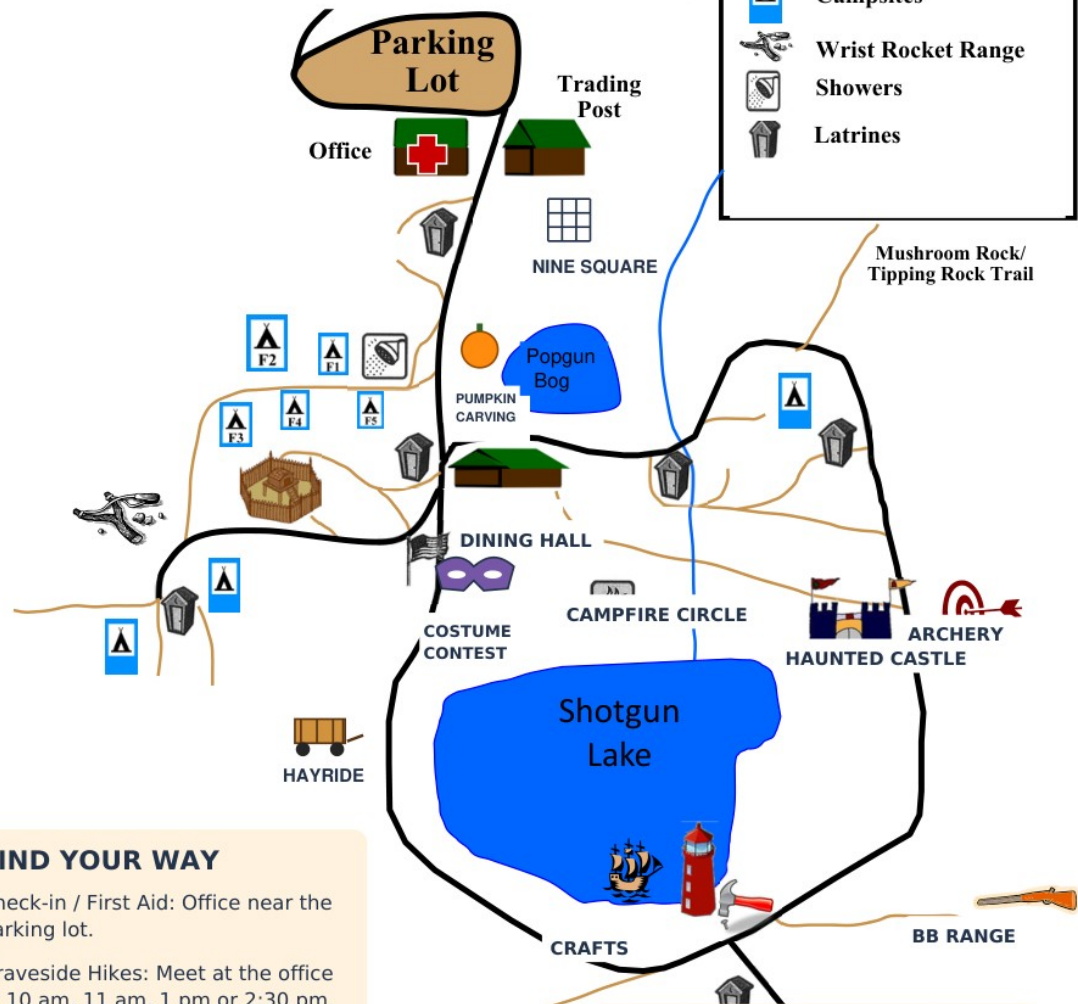

Potable water is available. Bring refillable bottles and keep hydrated throughout the weekend.
