Camp Kinda-like-a is back! Join us on zoom for two sessions of virtual merit badges. There will be two sessions per day. The first one will be from 5:30 pm until 6:30 pm. The second session will run from 7:00 pm until 8:00 pm. The night before the first class, we will email you a zoom link that is associated with each class. Each scout will choose up to two badges. Each badge will run for three sessions. To earn the badge, Scouts must attend all three sessions of the badge. Over the three days, Scouts can earn at most two badges.

If there are any questions, please email Maggie Bellemare at maggielle.scouting@gmail.com

Prerequisites:

Citizenship in the Nation: Watch the national evening news for five days in a row or read the main stories in a national media organization (e.g., a newspaper or news website) for five days in a row. Discuss the national issues that you learned about with your counselor. Choose one issue and explain how it affects you, your family, and community.

Journalism: attend ANY public event and be prepared to share your experience

Art: Have crayons, colored pencils, a pen, a pencil, and paper

American Labor: N/A

Public Speaking: N/A

Artificial Intelligence: have a device that is connected to the wifi for research

*If any parent or adult leader would like to be a second adult in the merit badge class, please reach out to Maggie Bellemare. It would be a great help to have another set of eyes and ears on the zoom calls!
