BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

National Youth Leadership Training

- BSA's advanced leadership training program for youth members
- A Scout-led, patrol-method experience simulating a month in the life of a troop while building skills for success
- Conducted at the council level following the national curriculum

BE – KNOW – DO

NYLT is centered on concepts of

- What a leader must BE
- What a leader must KNOW
- What a leader must DO
- Taught with a focus on HOW TO

The NYLT Toolbox

Finding your vision
Setting your goals
Preparing your plan
Communicating well
Problem solving
Stages of team development
The Leading EDGE
The Teaching EDGE
Making ethical decisions
Leading yourself
Valuing people
Conflict resolution
Public speaking

These skills come alive during the week as the patrol goes on a Quest for the Meaning of Leadership

What does the Scout gain from NYLT?

- Confidence and self-esteem
- Sense of responsibility
- Life skills applicable in Scouting, at school, and at home
- Experience with fun activities they can bring back to their unit that reinforce Scouting skills and concepts
- Impressive entry on a college or job application
- Leadership ability from day-one of their professional career that most people only develop years later, if at all
- Great memories having fun with new friends
- A chance of being asked back to staff next year's course

What does the unit gain from NYLT?

- Scouts with vision to take the unit to the next level
- Scouts that set goals and have a plan to make it happen
- Scouts with the skills to lead others, resolve conflicts and overcome obstacles
- Scouts that speak the same language as a Wood Badge trained Scouter
- Scouts that do the heavy lifting while you get another cup of coffee
