Cub Scout Overnight Camp 2024 • Leader Guide

Scouts and their parents expect all Boy Scouts of America activities to be conducted safely. To ensure the safety of participants, the Boy Scouts of America expects leaders to use the four points of SAFE when delivering the Scouting program.

SUPERVISION

Youth are supervised by qualified and trustworthy adults who set the example for safety.

- Accepting responsibility for the well-being and safety of youth under their care.
- Ensuring that adults are adequately trained, experienced, and skilled to lead the activity, including the ability to prevent and respond to likely problems and potential emergencies.
- Knowing and delivering the program of the Boy Scouts of America with integrity.
- Using qualified instructors, guides, or safety personnel as needed to provide additional guidance.
- Maintaining engagement with participants during activities to ensure compliance with established rules and procedures.

ASSessment

Activities are assessed for risks during planning. Leaders have reviewed applicable program guidance or standards and have verified the activity is not prohibited. Risk avoidance or mitigation is incorporated into the activity.

- Predetermining what guidance and standards are typically applied to the activity, including those specific to the Boy Scouts of America program.
- Planning for safe travel to and from the activity site.
- Validating the activity is age-appropriate for the Boy Scouts of America program level.
- Determining whether the unit has sufficient training, resources, and experience to meet the identified standards and, if not, modifying the activity accordingly.
- Developing contingency plans for changes in weather and environment and arranging for communication with participants, parents, and emergency services.

FITNESS AND SKILL

Participants' Annual Health and Medical Records are reviewed, and leaders have confirmed that prerequisite fitness and skill levels exist for participants to take part safely.

- Confirming the activity is right for the age, maturity, and physical abilities of participants.
- Considering as risk factors temporary or chronic health conditions of participants.
- Validating minimum skill requirements identified during planning and ensuring participants stay within the limits of their abilities.
- Providing training to participants with limited skills and assessing their skills before they attempt more advanced skills.

EQUIPMENT AND ENVIRONMENT

Safe and appropriately sized equipment, courses, camps, campsites, trails, or playing fields are used properly. Leaders periodically check gear use and the environment for changing conditions that could affect safety.

- Confirming participants' clothing is appropriate for expected temperatures, sun exposure, weather events, and terrain.
- Providing equipment that is appropriately sized for participants, is in good repair, and is used properly.
- Ensuring personal and group safety equipment is available, properly fitted, and used consistently and in accordance with training.
- Reviewing the activity area for suitability during planning and immediately before use, and monitoring the area during the activity through supervision.
- Adjusting the activity for changing conditions or ending it if safety cannot be maintained.

Nationally Accredited Camp

Cherokee Scout Reservation is a nationally accredited camp by the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Regionally trained appraisers inspect the camp annually. Key staff members are trained through the BSA National Camp School. Staff members are trained in CPR and basic first aid.

Welcome to Cub Scout Overnight Summer Camp at Cherokee Scout Reservation!

We're excited to welcome ALL Cub Scouts to Cherokee Scout Reservation for Summer Camp 2024.

In June 2024, the Boy Scouts of America will launch new program updates to the Cub Scout curriculum with a goal of making Cub Scouting fun, simple, and easy.

We're excited to share that the Cub Scout Overnight Summer Camp program is aligned to these new curriculum updates. Cubs of all ages will have a chance to catch "the big one" at our newly redesigned Cub Scout fishing area; test their marksmanship skills with wrist rockets, bbs, and archery; cool off with a dip at the lake; and take a hike in our hardwood forest.

Cub Scout Overnight Camp is open to Tigers, Wolves, Bears, Webelos, and Arrow of Light Scouts. Cub Scout Overnight Camp is a pack activity. Scouts will participate in age-appropriate activities as a den.

In collaboration with many Cub Scout volunteers throughout the council, we've developed a dynamic program for our Cub Scouts to enjoy at Summer Camp.

This summer's theme is dinosaurs/paleontology. The dinosaur/paleontology theme will be woven into the total camp program – meals, flag ceremonies, campfires, and adventure sessions.

Cub Scout Overnight Camp is designed to meet the needs of Cub Scouts.

1. The schedule minimizes the amount of walking Scouts will do daily.
2. Scouts will earn Adventures daily.
3. The schedule allows for an after-lunch nap.
4. We provide snack in the morning and afternoon to all participants – Scouts and leaders.
5. Instruction is delivered in small groups.
6. Scouts change activities every 15-20 minutes to keep them fully engaged.
7. We provide a staff member to lead you to your program areas daily. You never have to look at a map or worry about getting lost.
8. Full integration of the theme provides fun and excitement for everyone.

As you make plans for camp, please do not hesitate to contact us if you have questions. We are ready and prepared to assist you. You can reach Camp Director Bud Harrelson at bud.harrelson@scouting.org. During the summer, we can be reached at summer camp at 336-694-6440. We look forward to your unit's arrival this summer!

Yours in Scouting,

CHECK-IN & CHECK-OUT PROCEDURES

Check-In Procedures

Check-in: 1:00-2:30 pm on Sunday

- Units are requested to plan their arrival at camp to be as close to 1:00 as possible.
 - Scouts should arrive at camp as a unit, not individually. This makes the check-in process much smoother and faster.
 - Scouts and leaders should be prepared with water-filled canteens during check-in as this is the hottest time of the day!

 4. Vehicles will be stopped on the road as they enter camp. All vehicles carrying Scouts will be directed to the parking lot. Staff members in the parking lot will direct these vehicles to available parking spaces.
 5. Vehicles with gear or pulling trailers will be directed to the unit's campsite. It is okay for trailers to be left in the campsite for the week but vehicles must be left in the parking lot after unloading gear.
 6. Campsite hosts will meet the unit in the parking lot.

Scouts practice water rescue.

CAMP SECURITY

- An important aspect of youth protection at camp is having control over who is in camp – this includes campers, adult leaders, staff members, and visitors.
- The Scout uniform is a powerful validation symbol making anyone wearing one seem to be in the right place at a Scout camp. Unfortunately, almost anyone can obtain a uniform, whether or not they are registered in the program.
- Everyone in attendance at camp must wear identification that signifies legitimate participation in the camping program.
- We will use wristbands to signify that campers, adult leaders, staff and visitors are legitimate participants in the summer camp program.
- Wristbands will be distributed to units upon arrival at camp. The importance of wearing the wristband will be addressed during check-in.
- Wristbands should be worn at all times.
- All visitors to the camp must stop at the camp office, produce positive identification, and sign in.
- Visitors will receive a wristband that signifies they are a legitimate camp visitor.
- Upon conclusion of their visit, guests will sign out so that camp administrators will know who is in camp at all times.
- Any person spotted in camp without a wristband should be escorted to the office to sign in.

Uniforms in Camp

- All Scouts and leaders are encouraged to wear the complete BSA Field Uniform during flag lowering and dinner.
- The Activity Uniform is encouraged for all other times.
- Closed-toe shoes and a shirt must be worn at all times other than at the waterfront.
- Excepting religious objections, all hats should be removed when seated in the Dining Hall.
- Flip flops and open-toed sandals are not allowed per BSA Health and Safety policy.
- Wearing any BSA uniform should be done with respect. Camp staff and leaders should strongly encourage all Scouts to wear the Scout uniform correctly and appropriately, as defined by the BSA Guide to Awards and Insignia. While proper wear of the uniform is important in Scouting, leaders and staff should keep in mind that Cherokee Scout Reservation is a Scout camp, not a military institution.

HEALTH & SAFETY AT CAMP

Medical Services

- All first aid treatment is to be administered at the Health Lodge by the camp's Health Officer except in the case of emergencies.
- It is the duty of all leaders and Scouts to see that all injuries or illnesses, minor or serious, are reported to the camp Health Officer.
- Cases of serious injury or illness should also be reported to the Camp Director.
- It is important that all treatments take place in the Health Lodge so the camp can maintain a record of all cases for public health purposes. If a Scout or leader becomes sick (cold, flu, virus, etc.) at camp, he or she will be sent home.
- Once well, the Scout or leader may return to camp at a later time to make up his missed days at no additional charge as a participant in the Provisional Unit, if space allows.
- Units are advised that minor cuts, scratches, and blisters can be treated in the campsite using basic Scout first aid.
- A physician is on call 24 hours a day and hospitals are within a half hour of camp.
- Parents should be assured that the health and safety of each camper is a priority.
- In the case of a minor medical emergency, a Scout leader will be asked to transport the Scout to one of the local hospitals. This allows the camp Health Officer to remain in camp should he or she be needed again.

Scouts Leaving Camp Early

- Campers are not allowed to leave camp during the camp session without the approval of their parents/guardians, the unit leaders, and the camp director.
- With prior approval and completion of the Early Release Form, a Scout may leave camp with a responsible adult.
- Early Release Forms should be completed prior to the Scout's departure.
- Early Release Forms available online at <https://www.csr.camp/forms--resources.html>.
- The Scout must be signed out in the Headquarters Building.
- If the Scout returns to camp, he must be signed back in at the Headquarters Building.
- This process applies to Scouts who leave camp early on Friday evening but their unit plans to depart on Saturday morning.

Insurance

- The Old North State Council provides accident and sickness insurance for each person attending Scouts BSA resident camp.
- If an incident occurs at camp, it must be reported to the health officer so that an incident report can be completed.
- All questions related to BSA insurance can be directed to Kristina Edmondson at the Old North State Council office at kristina.edmondson@scouting.org or (336) 378-9166.

Medication Handling

- If possible, please have Scouts continue to take any medications taken during the school year until the end of summer camp.
- Please list only medications taken regularly and medications to be taken during camp on the health form.
- All medications should be come to camp in their original containers.
- For the safety of all at camp, ALL medications must be kept in a locked storage container.
- Medications may be turned into the health lodge during medical check-in, in which case they will be maintained and distributed through the health lodge.
- If the unit leader is handling medications in the campsite, you must provide an appropriate, lockable container and medications must remain under the control and supervision of an adult.
- The only exceptions to this rule are for emergency medications, such as asthma inhalers or EpiPens.
- Unit leaders who take responsibility for medications must sign a Unit Leader Medication Responsibility Form.

Buddy System

- The buddy system is always in effect at Cherokee Scout Reservation.
- This rule applies to Scouts, leaders, and staff.
- No person should be alone when walking trails, roads or in a campsite. This is especially important at night and during adverse weather.
- Remember, even adults can have accidents when alone, so please, stay with a buddy at all times.

Bullying and Fighting

- Cherokee Scout Reservation requires that all Scouts and adults adhere to the values and ethics of the Scout Oath and Scout Law.
- Any Scout or adult who engages in bullying another participant or fighting may be asked to leave camp immediately.
- This applies to all forms of bullying and harassment, including cyber-bullying.

Footwear

- All Scouts, leaders, staff, and visitors are required to wear appropriate footwear at all times at camp.
- Closed toe shoes are required at camp.
- Open toed shoes (i.e. sandals, "flip-flops" or the like) are only acceptable in the shower or at the waterfront (not on the way to or returning from these areas).
- This is for the safety of the campers to prevent injury.
- Aqua shoes are closed toe shoes and thus meet the requirement; however, they provide only limited protection and should not be used except for waterfront or shower activities.

Golf Carts

- Golf carts are only allowed for Scouts and leaders for medical purposes and must be provided by the person in need.
- Camp golf carts are for staff use only.
- Please see the Golf Cart Policy in the "Forms & Resources" section online.
- Authorized users are not allowed to give rides to others.

Vehicles in Camp

- Vehicles will only be allowed in camp on Sunday during check-in and Friday or Saturday during check-out for the purpose of loading and unloading gear.
- During the week, all vehicles must stay parked in the main camp parking lot.
- Vehicles that are parked along the paved surface road are left there at their own risk. Cherokee Scout Reservation cannot ensure their safety nor are they covered by any form of BSA insurance.
- Under no circumstances are passengers allowed to ride in the back of pick-up trucks or trailers!

Firearms/Weapons and Fireworks

- Firearms/weapons and fireworks can be dangerous and are prohibited on Old North State Council property.
- The only firearms/weapons allowed are those used in shooting sports programs and owned by the Old North State Council. The camp provides these firearms and ammunition.
- Personal firearms/weapons and ammunition are not allowed at camp.

Drug, Alcohol, Tobacco and Electronic Cigarette Use

- The Boy Scouts of America prohibits the use of alcoholic beverages and controlled substances at encampments or activities on property owned and/or operated by a BSA council or at any BSA sponsored activity.
- Adult leaders should support the attitude that young adults are better off without tobacco and may not allow the use of tobacco products at any BSA activity.
- If adults feel the need to use tobacco, it must be restricted to the designated and fenced-off, enclosed smoking area behind the Dining Hall.
- Any reference to tobacco includes electronic cigarettes, personal vaporizers, or electronic nicotine delivery systems that simulate tobacco smoking.
- As outlined in the Scouter Code of Conduct, Scouting activities are not a place to possess, distribute, transport, consume, or use any of the following items prohibited by law or in violation of any Scouting rules, regulations, and policies: alcoholic beverages or controlled substances, including marijuana.
- In addition, the Code of Conduct specifies that if you are taking prescription medications with the potential of impairing any functioning or judgment, you will not engage in activities that would put Scouts at risk, including driving or operating equipment.

Liquid Fuels in Camp

- It is the policy of the Old North State Council to limit the amount of liquid fuels in camp.
- Liquid fuel lanterns are restricted to the personal use of adults only.
- Under no circumstances are liquid fuels or lanterns allowed in tents.
- Gasoline and kerosene may not be stored in the campsite.
- To refuel the latrine lantern, kerosene is supplied by the Quartermaster.
- All other liquid fuels must be checked in to the Quartermaster upon arrival on Sunday where they are stored under lock and key.
- Anyone wishing to use his/her own fuel may do so by contacting the Quartermaster during business hours.
- Using liquid fuels to start any type of fire is prohibited.

General Cleanliness and Sanitation

- A Scout is clean. Showers, toilets, and latrines are available to Scouts and adults.
- These facilities must be kept clean at all times or privileges will be revoked.
- Trash bags are provided and a regular trash pick-up will be made.
- Laundry facilities are available in the camp's central shower house.
- Machines are coin-operated.

Campsite Inspections

- Your campsite will be inspected daily to make sure everything is in order at camp.
- Your Senior Patrol Leader will be briefed on Sunday about inspections.
- If you use personal tents in camp, all must be made of fire-retardant material. Please stencil on the door of the personal tents, "NO FLAME IN TENTS".
- We have temporary signs available in the Headquarters Building that can be placed in tents.
- The "NO FLAMES IN TENTS" policy also applies to adirondacks. No open flame of any kind is allowed.
- Make sure that you have everything ready for inspection before your Scouts leave for their first merit badge class each day.

Dehydration

- Dehydration is our number one camp illness and is 100% preventable.
- Dehydration can be a very dangerous situation when at camp.
- Be sure that you and all of your Scouts are drinking lots of water and other fluids.
- When you get up in the morning, you are already slightly dehydrated, so drink a little extra first thing in the morning.
- Be sure to eat well during meal times.
- Drinking fluids and eating a balanced diet are essential to helping prevent this heat related illness.

Sun Protection

- Exposure to the effects of the sun is a given at summer camp.
- It is vital that all campers remember to use sun protection when outdoors.
- Sun protection can be in the form of hats, clothing that covers the skin, and sunglasses.
- Use sunscreen frequently and copiously.
- Sunscreen should have an SPF (sun protection factor) of 30 or higher. Use a sunscreen that protects against UV-A and UV-B rays.
- Sunscreen should be applied approximately every two hours, after swimming, and more frequently if sweating.
- Take advantage of shaded areas when available.
- Remember that sun protection should be used even on overcast days and that sun damage from the sun's rays can occur when reflecting off of water or sand.

Valuables

- Each unit should provide adequate protection for valuables.
- A foot locker with a lock is recommended.
- The Old North State Council is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

TENT DAMAGE POLICY

All Scout leaders bringing their unit to summer camp should go over with their unit, both before camp and then again at camp, the importance of taking care of all the equipment they use at camp. Any group or unit using council equipment or property is responsible for the care of such equipment or property. Each group or unit will be responsible for having an adult check the condition of the equipment with a designated camp person upon arrival at the campsite and before departure at week's end. Any damage incurred during the week should be reported to the Camp Director immediately. Each group or unit is responsible for the cost of repair or replacement should the equipment or property be damaged while it is in its care, such cost being subject to the type and extent of damage as set forth and published by the Camping Committee. The scope of the damage will be decided by the Camp Director and Camp Ranger. If such damage requires the equipment to be replaced, the group may take what property they pay for. Make all Scouts aware that they will damage a tent by spraying insect repellent in or on the tent or tarp fabric, which results in the canvas losing its water repellency.

Damage Guidelines

Damage to camp property will be classified into one of three categories:

Accidental – Example: Scout stumbled as he exits or enters the tent, causing the tent to fall and tearing the fabric in the process.

Accidental but due to irresponsible behavior – Example: Scout is in or near his tent, carving with a knife. The knife slips, resulting in a cut in the canvas. This is considered irresponsible because the Scout should not have an open knife in or around the tent. Also, boys wrestling or engaged in rough-housing will be considered in this category.

Malicious – Example: Scout throws knife or other object into tent, resulting in a cut to the canvas.

If the damage to the equipment is determined to be accidental, the camp will absorb the cost of repair or replacement. If the damage is repairable and is caused by either irresponsible behavior or malicious behavior, the responsible party or unit will be charged $25.00 for each occurrence of damage, not to exceed the depreciated value of the item. If the damage is not repairable and is caused by either irresponsible behavior or malicious behavior, the responsible party or unit will be charged for the property based on its depreciated value.

Repair or replacement Policy

Tent roofs and tarps: repairable damage is defined as any cut less than 1 ½ inches in length.

Tent side walls and flaps: damage in this area will be determined to be repairable or replaceable by the Camp Director or Camp Ranger, at their discretion.

Value of Property

Tents and tarps have a life expectancy of 10 years. Each will be marked with the date of purchase and will be depreciated over the 10-year life span. Older tents and tarps that have not been marked with the date of purchase will be governed by the conditional grade assigned to it. Conditional grades will carry depreciation values of 3, 5, 7, and 8 years.

The Camp Director, at his sole discretion, can make any deviation from these depreciation values. Damage costs are due before the unit leaves camp.

ADIRONDACK DAMAGE POLICY

Cherokee Scout Reservation is proud to have added adirondacks to many of our campsites. In order to maintain these adirondacks and continue to add new ones, damage must be kept to a minimum. The cost for the Old North State Council to replace an adirondack is approximately $3,000. This includes materials and labor. As such, these structures must be taken care of by all who use them. Each week, the adirondacks are checked by campsite hosts as packs move in and out of the campsites. The unit using the campsite at the time any damage occurs is responsible for the costs associated with that damage.

Damage to adirondacks includes but is not limited to:

- Graffiti/writing on bunks, walls, floor, porch, etc.
- Lost or torn privacy curtain ($150 each), curtain rings, or curtain rod ($10 each)
- Broken or missing boards, supports
- Damaged or missing dedication plaque
- Cutting or carving in wood
- Altering the structure in any way (ie. Adding hooks, hammock supports, etc.)

Any damage to buildings (adirondacks, latrines, showers, etc.) will be assessed individually and the unit will be expected to pay, prior to leaving camp, for costs of repairs to include materials & labor.

Any graffiti or writing on the adirondacks will need to be removed by the unit using sandpaper that the campsite host will provide during check-out.

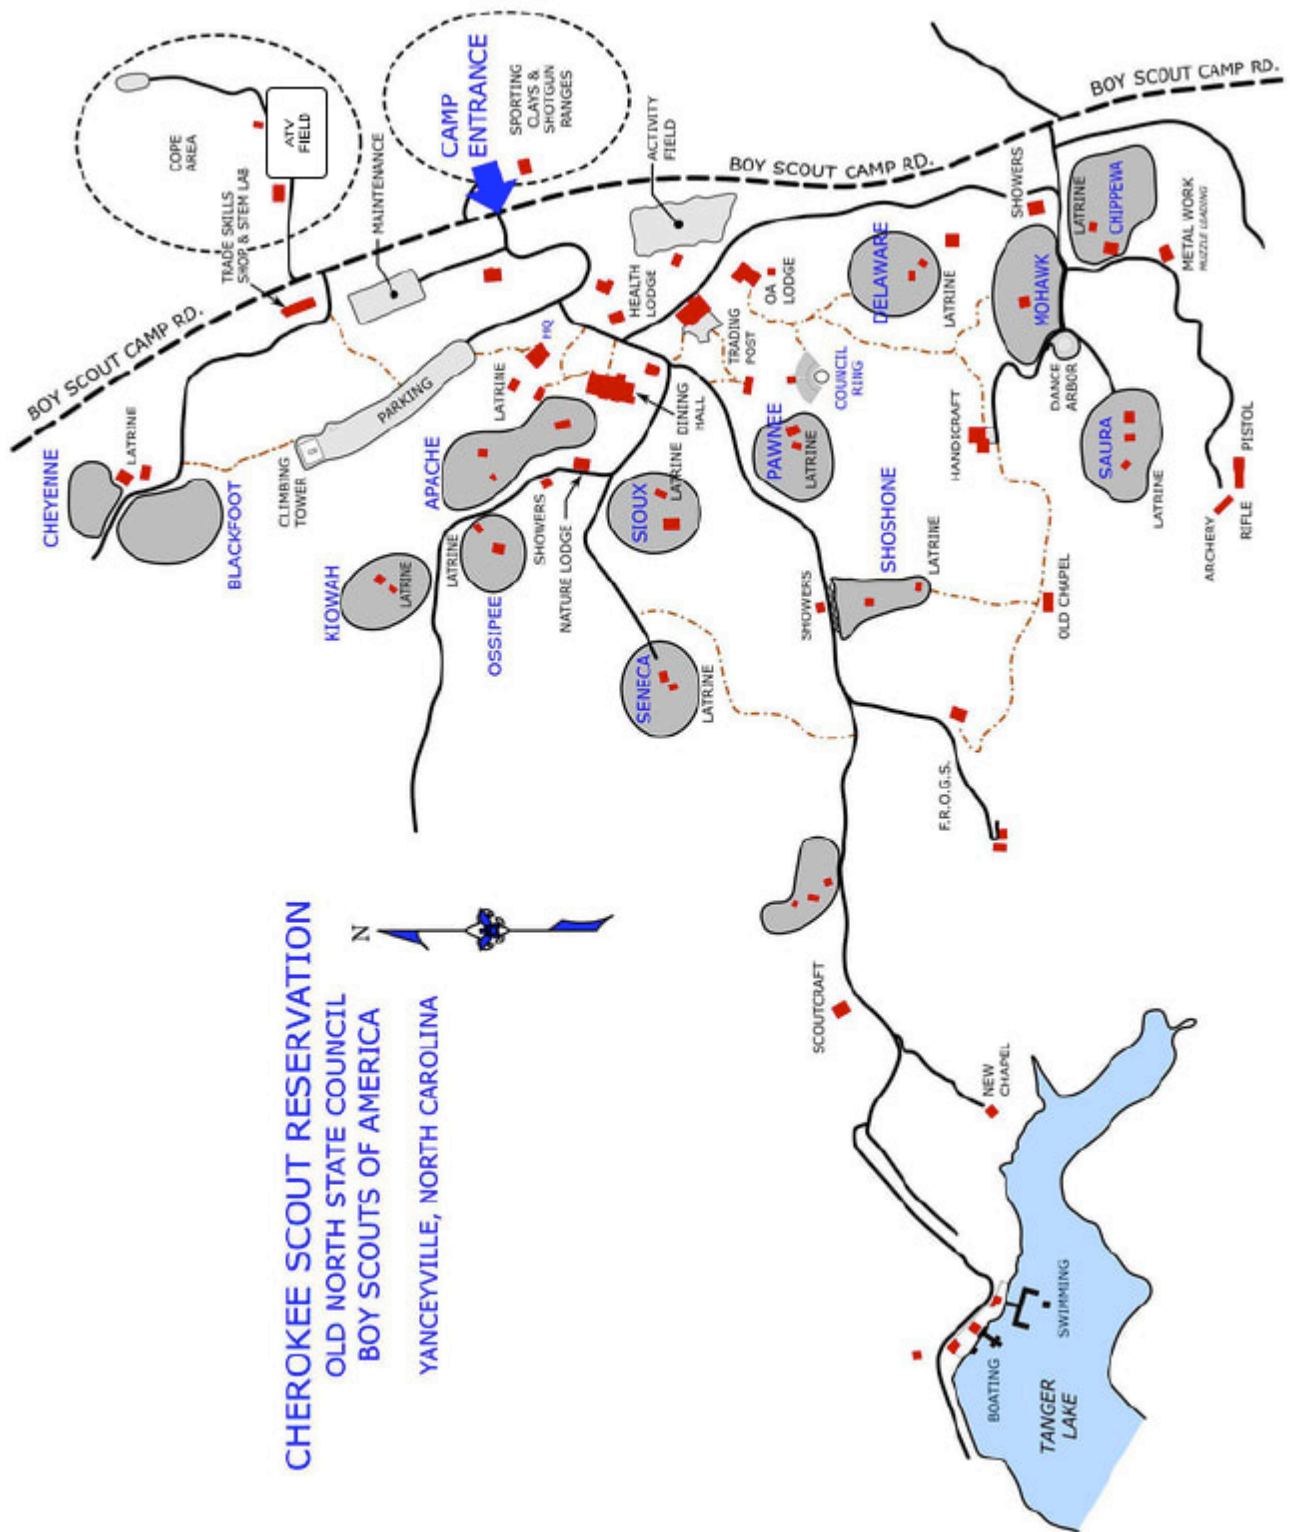

The Camp Director and/or Ranger, at their discretion, can make any deviation from these values. Damage costs are due before the unit leaves camp.

The Cherokee Scout Reservation leadership team thanks Tsoiotsi Tsogalii Lodge 70 for sponsoring the publication of this Leader Guide.
