Youth

Unlike Cub Scouts, troops are youth-run.

Each troop will have a set of youth leaders.

Depending on the troop size, there may be more positions than others. (Small troops V. Big troops)

Patrol Leader Council

This is where all the youth leaders meet and plan.

Adults are in this meeting, only to listen in. They only step in for health and safety reasons or reasons along those lines.

The trail to first class rank, teaches scouts skills

- Camping
- Hiking
- Cooking
- Knots
- Leadership

Trail to First Class

"A first-class scout is a scout who is ready for anything with in scouting."

Trail to Eagle

The path to Eagle is filled with merit badges and leadership. The scout must also embody the Scout's Vision and Mission.

Merit badges are like the cub adventures. They are "sub-categories" of scouting topics, from camping to art.

"An Eagle scout is a scout who is ready for anything with in life."
