Potomac District

Cub Scout Leader BALOO Training (C32)

(Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation)

Three dates to choose from

Saturday May 20, 2017

Sunday May 21, 2017

8:30am – 4:00pm

Please arrive by 8:30 for Check-in!

BALOO Training is a day of fun and learning which will help pack leaders plan and carry out a quality "entry-level" outdoor experience for the Cub Scouts and their families. Participants will better understand the laws of the BSA and camp programming while acquiring the skills and confidence to host a successful campout by increasing their knowledge of available resources and the use national and local council standards as guidelines.

BALOO includes INFORMATION on:

- Preparations for camping with Cub Scouts
- Site Selection
- Equipment
- Feeding
- Parent Involvement
- Health and Safety
- Introduction to Outdoor Skills

This Training is required for any adult who is in charge of planning and leading a pack campout. Any pack wishing to camp, must have at least one BALOO certified adult onsite for the campout and a Local Tour Permit approved by NCAC.
