OA 2017 Lodge Leadership Development Conference (LLDC): Well-Trained Leaders - Super Heroes Serving A Higher

Lodge/Chapter Leadership Track (Scheduled Classes)

LCL100 Room C	9-10 AM		Above and Below - How To Work With Everyone Get an overview of who a chapter chief works with and how a chapter chief works with the lodge, area, and district to better their chapter program and the Boy Scouts. Understand the basic skills needed to build trust and a relationship between adviser and chapter officers and beyond.
LCL101 Room C	10-11 AM		Lodge Operations - An Overview How does the lodge work? What's the LOP. Why is it important to attend the Lodge Leadership Conferences? Learn what the general operations in the lodge are and how you can help.
LCL102 Room C	11-12 PM		Key 3 and District Committee/Roundtable The chapter youth and adult leadership work together to ensure they have a presence within the district. Holding Key 3 meetings with your Chapter Chief, Chapter Adviser, and District Executive, and attending District Committee meetings and Roundtable meetings are just the first step to learning how working with the district can help our program and theirs.
LCL103 Room C	1-4 PM		Chapter Leadership Summit Prepare for an exciting, innovative, and intense 3-hour training session looking into the operation of a long-term successful chapter.
LCL104 Gymnasium	4-4:30 PM		A Walk Through Amangamek-Wipit 2017-2018 Join a discussion with new Lodge Chief Beckman Hollis.

OA LLDC Adult Arrowman/Adviser Track (Scheduled Classes)

AT100 Room B	9-10 AM		What's My Role? All adults are advisers. Learn about the mission of the OA to create leadership opportunities to develop young men into leaders, and the many supporting roles adults can serve in a youth-adult partnership to educate, motivate, and inspire the youth to do better and fulfill responsibilities successfully in the unit, chapter, and lodge.
AT101 Room B	10-11 AM		I'm A New Chapter Adviser, Now What? The Ordeal was a special time to learn about the Principles of the Order: Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and Service. Learn the many ways you can apply the Principles of the Order in Scouting.
AT102 Room B	11-12 PM		What's An ASM-TOAR? The ASM for Troop/Team OA Representative is an official leadership position within the troop or team. Learn about the role of the ASM-TOAR, how to advise the unit's TOAR program and the purpose of the Troop/Team OA Representative, and learn what it takes for a unit to achieve the Order of the Arrow Unit of Excellence Award. Learn how to challenge youth Arrowmen to think about the interactions and benefits of a strong TOAR program.
AT103 Room B	1-2 PM		How To Retain New Members Learn methods and strategies to attract and retain new members, and keep them coming back!
AT104 Room B	2-3 PM		Inspiring Youth By Mentoring In order to effectively inspire and mentor youth leaders an adult leader must first have a passion for the Order and an infectious energy and enthusiasm for working with young people. If we as adult leaders do not model the type of dedication and genuine enthusiasm for the program we expect of our youth leaders then our efforts at mentoring and inspiring youth will not be effective. Inspiring and mentoring starts with us. In this session, we will discuss the difference between coaching and mentoring, the uniqueness of the millennial generation and how to create a strong mentoring environment using mentoring best practices.
AT105 Room B	3-4 PM		Commissioner Arrowman A commissioner plays several roles, including friend, representative, unit "doctor," teacher, and counselor to Scouting Units. In this course participants will learn of opportunities where Arrowman and Commissioners can provide assistance to Chapters and units. Arrowman Commissioners can help shape expectations and tailor their experiences for Units. They can also be a good sounding board for the units and chapters. They have an opportunity to participate in the growth of unit leaders by sharing knowledge with them. Come and learn in the "Service to Scouting".
AT106 Gymnasium	4-4:30 PM		A Walk Through Amangamek-Wipit 2017-2018 Join a discussion with new Lodge Chief Beckman Hollis.
