Journey to Excellence

JTE is the BSA's tool for helping leaders plan their program, monitor progress and assess their Scouting success. Scouting success takes many forms, and JTE success employs a "balanced scorecard" as a result. The standards enable both large Scout units and small ones to succeed - as long as they provide good Scouting to youth.

Mining Internet Resources

Commissioners are asked many questions and assumed to be experts on everything. Although they may wish to be an expert, knowing where to find information can make them a virtual expert. Today we will concentrate not on the local "who do you call" but on using the internet, in effect, mining internet resources.

The Essential Element (A Servant's Heart)

In 1970, Robert Greenleaf introduced the term "servant leadership." He wrote an essay titled "The Servant as Leader" that was later expanded into a book. That book is a very influential management text that launched the servant leadership movement. However, the concept is thousands of years old and stems, at least partly, from religious teachings on leadership.

The Roundtable Commissioner Team

An effective roundtable commissioner team is vital to the success of all roundtables. The roundtable commissioner team organization is as simple as it needs to be in a small district and can be a more complex organization in a larger district. It is important that all members of the commissioner roundtable team understand the unique position of roundtable in the Scouting world. Roundtable provides a different method of unit service, but it is just as important. Roundtable also supplements unit commissioner efforts by the program support it provides.

Scouts BSA Roundtables

Boy scout roundtable is a form of commissioner service and supplemental training for volunteers at the unit level. The objectives of roundtables are to provide leaders with program ideas, information on policy and events, and training opportunities. It is a forum for sharing experiences and enjoying fun and fellowship with other Scout leaders. When skillfully executed, the roundtable will provide "The Will to Do and The Skill to Do." Roundtable will inspire, motivate, and enable unit leaders to provide a stronger program for their Scouts.

On-Time Charter Renewal

Annually, sponsoring organizations and units apply to BSA for a new charter to deliver the Scouting program. This process validates youth membership and qualified leaders, confirms agreement to follow BSA policies, and collects registration fees. District commissioners must lead these activities which may engage volunteers who are inexperienced or unfamiliar with BSA procedures. This session explores leadership techniques to prepare, guide, and support units in completing accurate charter renewal applications on-time.

Recruiting New Commissioners

In the 1940's, a super-salesman named Elmer Wheeler made what Time magazine called "a handsome living" advising U.S businesses. His concept was - "Don't sell the sausage - sell the sizzle!" Elmer knew the big secret to successful selling is that you don't advertise the sausage itself because it's the desirable sounds and smells which get the juices flowing and the people hungry. We should keep that in mind when recruiting new commissioners - when making the sales pitch. Scouting is exciting, adventurous, and a whole lot of fun. We need to sell the "sizzle" of Scouting.

Enhancing Unit Service

Enhancing Unit Service is tailored for DCs and ADCs, and covers how the commissioner service to units concept is only rarely being completed. Issues identified by the commissioners are entered into Commissioner Tools, but those issues rarely get to the Key 3 or district committee. In turn, those units with identified issues rarely get the help they need. The good news is that administrative commissioners can use existing reports, use some elbow grease, match unit issues with experts, and come up with a report that can be easily taken to the Key 3 and district committee. In turn, this amended process should get help to those units in need and complete the commissioner service to units process. Select ACCs could be interested in this class as well.

College of Commissioner Service 2021 Keynote Address

Saturday Keynote Address for the NCAC College of Commissioner Service 2021. The Keynote Speaker is Roger C. Mosby, CEO and President of the Boy Scouts of America, headquartered in Irving, Texas.

Roger Mosby most recently ran his own consulting firm focused on executive coaching, following his retirement from leading energy infrastructure company Kinder Morgan in 2015. During nearly two decades with the company, he served as HR lead and was one of the original six officers. During his tenure, Kinder Morgan grew from 175 to more than 11,000 employees, with Mosby leading extensive change management and cultural transformation efforts.

Roger was a Scout as a youth and served for more than 33 years as a volunteer in the Mid-America and Sam Houston Area councils, in addition to positions with the Southern Region and National Committees of the Boy Scouts of America, as well as the World Organization of the Scout Movement. He has received the Silver Antelope Award and the Silver Beaver Award, the highest honors for volunteers at the regional and local levels, respectively, and is a Vigil Honor member of the Order of the Arrow, Scouting's honor society.
