

CUB SCOUT RANGEMASTER AGREEMENT

In consideration for being trained as a Cub Scout Rangemaster, the undersigned agrees to follow the rules and requirements as documented in the BSA National Shooting Sports Manual, namely

- All rangemasters must be a registered adult in good standing, with current Youth Protection Training
- Cub Scout shooting sports programs may be conducted only on a district or council level.
- Archery, slingshot and BB gun shooting are restricted to day camps, Cub Scout/Webelos Scout long-term camps, council-managed short-term camps, or to council activities where there are properly trained supervisors and all standards for BSA shooting sports are enforced.
- Archery, slingshot and BB gun shooting are prohibited at the pack level.
- The use of pellet air rifles is restricted to Webelos Scouts in a long-term camp setting only.

The BSA Shooting Sports Manual can be found at:
https://www.scouting.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/Shooting-SportsManual_02.11.22.pdf

Range master training must be renewed every two years. Range masters must carry a current copy of their Training Course Certificate, No. 33767 to act as a range master.

Scouts who are 16 years of age or older may participate in the range master training. These scouts, under supervision of a qualified range master, can act as a range assistant. These scouts cannot run a range or supervise live fire.

Failure to follow these rules will result in the undersigned being identified to Central Florida Council and prohibited from participating in future shooting sport training and events.
