

Leader's Guide and Game Guidance for 2023 GTBAC – Skyway District Baden Powell Games

Introduction: The concept of the Baden Powell Games is simple. Multiple events that test a Patrol & Patrol Leaders Scout Skills, Teamwork, Scout Spirit, Endurance and following the Scout Law.

There will be 8 Graded activities at the Games this year – This packet will explain the events and scoring for each event. Patrol Leaders will receive a copy of the Patrol Scoresheet & must fill in the top portion before starting the games. It is the Patrol Leaders responsibility to keep the scoresheet, ensure scores are filled in by the event hosts, and turn in at the dining hall by 1630 on Saturday at the dining hall. Patrols that lose their scoresheets will be disqualified. Patrols that turn in their score sheets after 4:30PM will lose 1 point for every minute the sheet is late. All games must be conducted while following the Scout Oath & Law – Good Sportsmanship is vital! Sunday's awards ceremony will celebrate the top three patrols in the district as well as awards for Scout Spirit and other accomplishments. The top Patrol Leader in the District will be recognized accordingly.

Let the Games Begin!

Yours in Scouting,
John Tredo BPG 2023 Chair

Each patrol must attach the glow stick to the top of the patrol flag pole. The patrol must place their flag somewhere on camp soule in a visible location. Patrol Flags should be in position & glow sticks activated by 10:00PM. Scouts will receive a 3x5 card to designate flag hunters. Flag hunters need to write their name troop & patrol on the card. Captured flags will be brought to the dining hall and the game will be over at 11:00PM. All patrols should send representatives to the dining hall to either show they still possess their own patrol flag or retrieve their captured flag.

Defense – The patrol can designate 2 or more scouts to defend the flag. The scout's defensive position cannot be closer than 5 body lengths of the taller scout from the flag. Scouts can tag flag hunters before they touch the flag pole to get them out – When tagged a flag hunter must surrender his 3x5 card to the defenders and can no longer be a flag hunter.

Flag Hunter's – Flag hunter's will quietly explore Camp Soule looking for patrol flags. If a Flag hunter can touch the pole without getting tagged first that hunter has "Captured the Flag" and can bring it to the dining hall for points.

Only the towing scout will pull the tow line (This is not a tug of war) • In the event that both teams hook the whale monitor closely that the whale is not jerked on to prevent injury.

KIM'S GAME: FIRST AID

- Materials: blanket or tarp, collection of ten or more first-aid objects such as: gauze pads, bandages, splints, adhesive tape, absorbent cotton, scissors, tweezers, sunburn ointment, antibiotic ointment, rubber gloves, thermometer, etc., and ten or more objects not used in first aid such as: a ball, paper clip, merit badge pamphlet (not first aid), pencil, penny, photo, shoe, glove, hand ax, toothpaste, etc.
- Method: All objects are spread on the floor and covered with the blanket or tarp. The patrols gather around the covered objects. The cover is removed for exactly one minute. Afterward, the patrols huddle separately and write down all first-aid objects they can remember.
- Scoring: The patrol with the most complete list wins. One point is deducted for each non-first-aid object listed.

STRETCHER RELAY

- Materials: two sturdy, 6-foot poles, one blanket, one inflated balloon for each patrol
- Method: The patrols line up in relay formation with the blanket and two poles. One patrol member is designated as an “injured Scout” and lies on the ground twenty-five feet away at the rescue point. On signal, two Scouts serving as stretcher carriers run up from the starting line with the blanket and two poles. When they reach the rescue point, they make a stretcher and put their “injured Scout” on it. When ready, they lift the stretcher and a junior leader (or judge) places the inflated balloon on the “injured Scout.” The carriers transport the “injured Scout” to the starting line without letting the balloon fall off. If it does, they must return to the rescue point and try again. The “injured Scout” may not hold onto the balloon. At the starting line, the carriers lift the “injured Scout” off. Another patrol member is designated as an “injured Scout,” and two other Scouts run up to make a stretcher for transporting them to the rescue point.
- Scoring: The patrol that most carefully transports their “injured Scouts” to the starting line in the least amount of time, wins.

Horizontal Presentation: A Pole or clothesline type arrangement should be set up on one side of Gilwell Field. The Patrol should present the colors correctly (Blue Field in the upper left as it faces the audience) Then retrieve the colors and Correctly Fold them. Vertical Presentation: Another Pole or Clothesline – Scouts will present the colors and hang the flag vertically. The Patrol should present the colors correctly (Blue Field in the upper left as it faces the audience) Then retrieve the colors and fold them.
