

Homework – to do on your own

1. Sketch the face of the Moon and show at least five seas and five craters. Label these on your sketch.
2. Sketch the phase and position of the Moon, at the same hour and place, four nights within a one-week period. Include landmarks – hills, trees, houses, etc. Explain the changes you see.

