HOW THE ROTATION WORKS

Each rank receives 30 minutes of instruction followed by 30 minutes of supervised shooting. A separate instructor and range masters allow the next group to begin instruction while the previous group is on the range.

WHAT SCOUTS WILL DO

- Learn archery safety and skills
- Shoot on the range
- Complete adventure requirements
- Receive the belt loop on site
- Explore ham radio
- Join Scouts from across the district

AIM. SHOOT. COMMUNICATE.

Organized by Cub Scout rank instead of individual pack or unit
