METROPOLIS MARVEL

DENNIS FRANCIS

President & Publisher of the Honolulu Star-Advertiser

Dennis Francis is publisher of the Honolulu Star-Advertiser – Hawaii’s leading provider of in-depth, consistent and credible local news – as well as president & CEO of Oahu Publications Inc., whose portfolio includes not only the Star-Advertiser but also, The Garden Island newspaper on Kauai, Hilo’s Hawaii Tribune-Herald & West Hawaii Today on the Big Island, MidWeek, and various other community and military publications and in-room hotel magazines. Dennis also oversees The San Francisco Examiner and the SF Weekly newspapers in San Francisco, California.

Francis has nearly 40 years of senior newspaper management experience. He oversaw the merger of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin and the Honolulu Advertiser in 2010. In 2013 Editor & Publisher (E&P) magazine named him “Publisher of the Year,” besting newspaper publishers from The New York Times, The Dallas Morning News, The Orange County Register and the Montreal Gazette.

Francis is on numerous local boards including Boy Scouts of America, Diamond Head Theatre, Aloha United Way and Hawaii Business Roundtable to name a few.

THE DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN AWARD

Established by the Boy Scouts of America in 1983, the Distinguished Citizen Award recognizes noteworthy and extraordinary leadership of citizens in communities across the United States. Honoring distinguished citizens puts into place guideposts that serve to inspire our youth to lead, to accept responsibility, and to care about the principles and causes beyond self-interest.

Hawaii’s Distinguished Citizen Award is presented annually to an individual who shares Scouting’s belief in leadership, determination and values.

This year we are proud to recognize Dennis Francis as our 2017 Distinguished Citizen for his support and leadership in business, government, community service and Scouting which has contributed significantly to the growth and vitality of Hawaii.
