Choose between two full-day class tracks: Lodge Leadership Development OR Elangomat / OA Representative training

Class Choice #1: Elangomat / OA Representative Training

For YOUTH OA Members

Are you trying to find a way to get involved in the OA? We have good news! The new Elangomat/OA rep training will provide a quality full-day course teaching you how to perform in two of the most important positions in Scouting's National Honor Society. Learn how you can give back to your community and unit by taking this course led by our lodge leaders.

An Elangomat guides others on their journey to join the OA. Learn how you can help guide others, help activate new members into the Order, and get involved in one of the biggest committees in Lowaneu Allanque Lodge.

An OA Representative is a unit's main line of contact with the OA. Learn how you can better support your unit with the programs, training, and more that the OA offers. An OA rep is also a troop guide; learn how to help guide Scouts in your unit to becoming their very best!

Class Choice #2: Lodge Leadership Development

For YOUTH And ADULT OA Members*

Have you already taken ILST/ILSC and NYLT and are looking for a new type of leadership training, or are you looking at getting involved in an OA leadership position? Look no further! This year Lowaneu Allaque is making our LLD more accessible than ever, providing a quality leadership experience that you can't get from just any other training. Learn how our lodge is structured, how to get involved, and how to lead your unit to greatness with a syllabus specially designed for our area by the national organization of the Order of the Arrow. This class has content for both youth and adults.
