

2025 SPRING INTRODUCTION TO OUTDOOR LEADERSHIP SKILLS TRAINING

An in-depth training for Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters

What is Introduction to Outdoor Leadership Skills?

Why should I attend this training?

Introduction to Outdoor Leadership Skills (IOLS) is designed to give adults a look through scouts' eyes as we share exciting skills such as Orienteering, Pioneering, Cooking, Fire Building, Flag Ceremony, Outdoor Ethics, Camping and Hiking Techniques, and more. One of the key points of scouting is teaching you the basic skills any scout needs to know to "Be Prepared" in the great outdoors.

This course is the second half of the Scoutmaster Training Program, allowing you to be trained as a Scoutmaster or Assistant Scoutmaster. Please consider taking this course to strengthen your scouting knowledge, build new connections and contacts, and fine tune your outdoor leadership skills.

When & Where

Begin: Saturday, April 12, 2025 @ 7:30AM (Central Time)

(Please eat before you arrive)

End: Sunday, April 13, 2025 @ 12 Noon (Central Time)

Location:

Evansville Athletic Club Farm
3143 Schenk Rd
Evansville, Indiana 47720

Cost: $40

(Includes meals on Saturday & Sunday)

Deadline: April 6, 2025

What to Bring: Personal Camping Equipment; Participants Will Be Outdoors 100% of the Time

Field Uniform	Scouts BSA Handbook	Notebook & Pen	Compass	Water Bottle
Flashlight	Sleeping Gear	Tent	Small Backpack	Rain Gear
Camp Chair & Mess Kit	Personal Hygiene Kit & Insect Repellent	Weather Appropriate Attire	BSA Medical Form Parts A & B

For more information, contact:

Event Chair: Fred Wilson – (812) 589-9643 – fwilson@usi.edu

Council Training Chair: Keith Gehlhausen – (812) 459-4778 – kegehlhausen@aol.com

To Register, go to <https://www.buffalotracecouncil.org/>

Online Payment with Registration Preferred

