

The Buffalo Trace Council

Presents

Wilderness First Aid Course

With certification through the Emergency Care and Safety Institute

March 6, 2026

6pm--10pm (CT)

&

March 7, 2026

8am—4pm (CT)

Eykamp Scout Center
3501 E. Lloyd Expressway
Evansville, IN 47715

Two adults on any high adventure base excursion MUST have the Wilderness First Aid training. Course covers required curricula and provides certification as required by ALL National high adventure bases. Youth ages 13 and older are also eligible to take the course.

- Participants MUST attend both days
- Wilderness Oriented
- Perfect for any outdoor active unit
- Field Guide Included
- Bring your lunch and snacks to share if you like.

$90 Course Fee/ $100 Out-of-Council

(Fee will increase by $10 for registrations received after February 22, 2025) Course size limited to 20 participants

First priority will be given to those planning
High Adventure Base visits for 2025

This course DOES NOT fulfill the requirement for a valid CPR card.

Instructor: Lee Turpen Lee.turpen@gmr.net

2026 Wilderness First Aid Course

Please register online by or before March 1, 2026:

<https://www.scoutingevent.com/156-WFASpring2026>

If paying in person at the Scout office, be sure to bring your online registration number!

Registration # _____

Fee: $90 (or $100 OOC)x _____ participants = $ _____

Fee after Feb 22nd $100 (or $110 OOC)x _____ participants =
$ _____

Limited Financial Assistance Available to Qualified BTC Members

