

2026 FALL INTRODUCTION TO OUTDOOR LEADERSHIP SKILLS TRAINING

An in-depth training for Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters

What is Introduction to Outdoor Leadership Skills?

Why should I attend this training?

Introduction to Outdoor Leadership Skills (IOLS) is designed to give adults a look through scouts' eyes as we share exciting skills such as Orienteering, Pioneering, Cooking, Fire Building, Flag Ceremony, Outdoor Ethics, Camping and Hiking Techniques, and more. One of the key points of scouting is teaching you the basic skills any scout needs to know to "Be Prepared" in the great outdoors.

This course is the second half of the Scoutmaster Training Program, allowing you to be trained as a Scoutmaster or Assistant Scoutmaster. Please consider taking this course to strengthen your scouting knowledge, build new connections and contacts, and fine tune your outdoor leadership skills.

When & Where

Begin: Saturday, November 7, 2026 @ 7:30AM (Central Time)

(Please eat before you arrive)

End: Sunday, November 8, 2026 @ 12 Noon (Central Time)

Location:

Eykamp Scout Center
3501 E. Lloyd Expressway
Evansville, Indiana 47715

Cost: $50

(Includes meals on Saturday & Sunday)

Deadline: November 1, 2026

What to Bring: Personal Camping Equipment; Participants Will Be Outdoors Much of the Time

Field Uniform	Scouts BSA Handbook	Notebook & Pen	Compass	Water Bottle
Flashlight	Sleeping Gear	Tent	Small Backpack	Rain Gear
Camp Chair & Mess Kit	Personal Hygiene Kit & Insect Repellent	Weather Appropriate Attire	BSA Medical Form Parts A & B

For more information, contact:

Course Coordinator: Ted Stoen—(812) 319-1148—tstoen@me.com

Council Training Chair: Keith Gehlhausen – (812) 459-4778 – kegehlhausen@aol.com

To Register, go to <https://www.buffalotracecouncil.org/>

Online Payment with Registration Preferred

BUFFALO TRACE COUNCIL

Boy Scouts of America