

Packing List for Your Ordeal

The following list is what to bring for your Ordeal:

- Wear Work Clothes Friday night
 - o You will need your uniform for Saturday night, but do not need to wear it to registration.
 - o You will sleep in the clothes you arrive in on Friday and complete your cheerful service in them on Saturday.
 - o Clothes can be Scout related or any other clothing that is comfortable to work in that you don't mind getting dirty. We recommend an old T-Shirt, long pants, jacket, rugged shoes and socks, and a hat.

- Sleeping Bag & Tarp
- Work Gloves
- Water Bottle
- Rain Gear

- Light Jacket
- Spirit of the Arrow Booklet #1
- Sleeping pad (Only Adults)

You will not be allowed to take anything else with you on your Ordeal. During your ordeal, you will be under a vow of silence and spend a night under the stars. Eat heartily before you come, as food will be scant until the feast on Saturday evening. You will spend Saturday doing various cheerful service for the camp, and after service is completed, you will take a shower and change into your full Field Uniform (Class A).

These are some essentials you will want for Saturday night after your Ordeal:

- Tent and sleeping gear
- Change of underwear and socks
- Full Field Uniform (Class A)
- Change of clothes for Sunday
- Toiletries (soap, toothbrush, etc.)

- Flashlight & Batteries (Leave this in your tent on Friday night)
- Towel & Washcloth
- Money for the trading post

Please do not bring unnecessary snack foods, electronic devices, games, or any other valuables. If you have questions, you can direct them to any lodge officer or Buffalo Trace Council; General Lodge Email Contact: contact@kiondaga.org
