

Quivira Council - Nova Day “Cubs Can Code”

March 4, 2023 - Cosmosphere

What is it? This Quivira Council Nova Day for Cubs will be at the Cosmosphere in Hutchinson, Kansas (1100 N. Plum), where Cub Scouts will get hands-on coding experience. All are welcome, but the Nova Award is only awarded to Wolf, Bear, and Webelos.

- Activities
- Documentary in the Carey Digital Dome Theater (Requirement 1A)
  - Binary Code Challenge (Requirement 2B)
  - Conditional Gaming (Requirement 3B)
  - Robotic Mazes (Requirement 4 and 5)
  - All requirements are covered during this event

Schedule

8:30 AM	Check-in	12:30 PM	2nd Session
9:00 AM	Welcome and Documentary	1:30 PM	3rd Session
10:30 AM	1st Session	2:00 PM	4th Session
11:30 AM	Lunch*	3:00 PM	Dismissed

Cost                      $30/Cub Scout    $10/Adult**

Registration Go to <https://quivira.org/camping-with-quivira/camporees-and-cub-weekends/> to register. Online payment is required and may be made by credit card or electronic check.

The last day to register is February 24, 2023. No phone or paper registrations are allowed.

Questions Email JoAnna Strecker at joannas@cosmo.org
Email Jose Vigil at josevigil52@sbcglobal.net

*You may bring a sack lunch or purchase lunch at the Cosmo Cafe or another local venue.

**All Packs must have two-deep leadership in accordance with Youth Protection Guidelines, and all adults must have completed Youth Protection Training. The $10 fee gives you access to the museum and shows (Planetarium and Dr. Goddard’s Lab).