Quivira Council

Volunteer Summit

One team- One trail

Who should attend: This includes volunteers who:

- Support a volunteer-led Council working in partnership with professional staff to deliver the promise of Scouting to youth
- Have interest working with Council Committees and Sub Committees
- Have interest in directing or assisting with training or activities
- Have served on District Committees and wish to continue their servant leadership
- Have key skills, knowledge, or certifications and would like to contribute to our Scouting program

What is this event: A day-long, hands-on workshop uniting volunteers across the newly expanded Quivira Council through collaboration, servant leadership, and personal responsibility. Meet fellow volunteers, connect with Council committees, understand the Activity Policy, and help shape the next 18 months of activities. Each of us has a role in turning shared plans into action.

When is this event: December 12th, with overnight camping available on Friday and/or Saturday

Where: Camp Brown, 1091 1900 Ave, Abilene, KS 67410

Cost: $15 to cover the cost of food- registration on Black Pug required. Sign up closes December 6th! https://scoutingevent.com/198-122884

What should I bring: This is a uniformed event. Please wear your uniform if you have one. Participants attending Saturday only should bring:

- Notebook and something to write with
- Information on any upcoming events you are interesting in leading or supporting
- BSA Health form parts A & B only

Participants camping either night should also bring appropriate camping equipment.
