Focus of Cub Haunted Campout 2026

Scouts join for adventure, and nothing excites them more than the outdoors, especially when it's filled with Halloween fun! This campout will immerse Scouts and families in Monster Madness, blending spooky challenges, outdoor skills, and Cub Scout traditions. By spending time outdoors together, families strengthen the Scouting spirit and build enthusiasm for the adventure ahead.

Overview of Cub Haunted Campout & Registration

- Registration is all online through individual family registrations.
 - Please use the event registration on the Council website South Louisiana Council - Cub Haunted Weekend - Camp McGee and log into your account or "Continue as Guest."
 - This is an Adventure Pass event! Adventure Pass Cub Scouts register under "Adventure Pass" with rank.
 - Registration fees:

Camp Rules and Regulations

- East Feliciana Parish has instituted a "burn ban" until further notice. As such, that means:
 - Campfires are not permitted in designated fire pits within each campsite.
 - If a burning ban exists at the time, fires will not be allowed on the campgrounds anywhere.
- All Scouting America policies are followed.
- We have set up regional parking lots for your convenience and to minimize traffic on the roads to keep everyone as safe as possible.
 - Vehicles, on Friday night, will be allowed to "drive-in" near their assigned campsite to unload and will then need to park in their assigned lot (1, 2, 3, or 4), provided at check in.
 - Vehicles, on Saturday, will not be allowed to "drive-in" near their assigned campsite.
 - If you have a wagon at home, it may be helpful to use in moving your gear to your campsite. (This is not required.)
 - Trailers will be available for transport.
 - Vehicles are not allowed to remain in the campsites overnight.
 - Troop trailers may be parked at the campsite, but clear of the roadways. Vehicles must return to the assigned parking lot.
- No pets of any kind are allowed at camp. Service animals are permitted.
- The "Lake" is off limits for swimming. Fishing is permitted.

Emergencies

- MEDICAL Emergencies: Acadian will be available; Serious Emergencies Call 911, then contact Jacqueline Moore (225) 719-0698
- Clinton Police Department: (225) 683-9357 OR dispatch: (225) 683-5459
- FIRE: Call 911; Fire Department (225) 683-9735
- Hospital: Lane Regional Medical Center: 6300 Main St., Zachary, LA (225) 658-4000

Meals

You are responsible for all meals for your family. Ask your pack if they are planning any meals together.
