Welcome!

Welcome to Northern Star Scouting's College of Commissioner Service – where Inspiration Happens Through Connections.

Thank you for your continued dedication to putting our units first. Your commitment to personal growth not only strengthens your own skills but multiplies your ability to inspire, empower, and uplift the leaders you serve.

The College of Commissioner Service is more than just training—it's a chance to connect. Meet someone new. Share your experiences. Listen to a fresh perspective. These moments of connection are where inspiration takes root and spreads across our Commissioner Corps and the units we serve.

Commissioners are at their best not because they know everything—but because they connect people to what matters. You are the bridge to training, the spark for collaboration, and the trusted guide who helps others navigate the Scouting journey. Your ability to foster relationships is where your greatest impact lies.

Together, we create a powerful network of support and encouragement. Our collective energy, wisdom, and passion are what help bring Scouting to life for every young person.

Our shared mission remains strong:

Be the Heart. Build Relationships. Inspire Change.

I look forward to connecting and being inspired with you in November!

Yours in Scouting,

Nick Pedersen
Council Commissioner
Northern Star Scouting

What Program Do I Register For?

Bachelor of Commissioner Service: The Bachelor's program is open to anyone who has completed Unit Commissioner Basic Training. The Bachelor's program offers courses to supplement and build on your basic training skills.

See page 7.

Master of Commissioner Service: The Master's program is advanced training that follows completion of the Bachelor's program. This program offers courses to enable commissioners to work effectively with specific unit needs and special needs of Scouts in your unit. Learn concepts and learn skills for developing unit leaders and helping Units. See page 8.

Doctorate of Commissioner Service: The Doctorate program follows completion of the Master's program and includes carrying out a project that benefits an area of scouting. Doctoral candidates will attend advanced training courses and make a presentation on their completed project. See page 9.

Advanced Studies: The Advanced Studies program offers courses to supplement previous commissioner training. The program is intended for commissioners who have completed the Master's program or Doctorate program and who are interested in learning more – plus enjoying fellowship with other commissioners. See page 11.

Continuing Education: The Continuing Education program is a degree Opportunity for Commissioners of any level to participate in a group discussion on key unit issues Commissioners need to address. See page 12.

Basic Commissioner Training: Basic Commissioner Training will be offered for new Commissioners.

Keynote Presentation

Keynote:

Bill Lenker

Council Service Territory #4 Commissioner

As commissioners we are often asked questions about many topics. We try to answer them if we know the answer or make a call and see if we can find out what the answer is. Then we contact the unit or adult leader that asked the question in the first place, and hopefully everything is better. That commissioner has just made a connection. So our question now is how do we provide “Inspiration through Connections?” Bill will explore that topic.

Bill is the Commissioner for the Council Service Territory (CST) that covers Northern Star Scouting service area. As the CST #4 Commissioner one of his main objectives is to help Councils succeed. He also is a liaison between National Scouting America and Northern Star Scouting.

Focus Session

“How to Recruit Commissioners without Asking”

The Focus Session.

Phil Jensen, Assistant Council Commissioner

Every district needs more commissioners, but where can we find them?
How exactly, should we ask Scouters to become commissioners?

Phil Jensen is an assistant council commissioner with a proven track record of recruiting district-and council-level volunteers. He also has failed a lot and knows what not to do. Phil will present strategies for recruiting commissioners, including where (not) to look and how (not) to ask.

The Doctoral Project

Candidates for the Doctorate degree will typically complete their Doctoral project in the 12 months between completing their Master's degree and the next session of the college. Projects should be substantially completed before a candidate registers for the Doctorate degree.

Project Requirements

1. The Dean of the Doctoral program or the commissioner College President must approve the project's topic before you start.
2. The project must be on a topic of benefit to Scouting related to commissioner service.
3. The project topic must show initiative through originality or by adapting an established activity to a new environment or theme. A typical project requires planning as well as implementation.
4. A typical project involves a medium level of effort – similar to a Wood Badge ticket item. The level of effort might involve two months of part-time Scouting work.
5. The project must not have been used to fulfill requirements for other training or service recognitions.
6. The candidate must attend the College of Commissioner Service and describe the project during a Doctorate Project Presentations Seminar (DCS 604 or 605).

A project abstract is required for approval by the dean of the Doctoral degree program. The abstract should be between half a page and one page in length when using 12 pt size font. The abstract will provide a summary of the project that includes the name of the project in the title, why the project was performed, how the project was performed, how the project benefits Scouting and the timeliness of the project.

Contact Bob Elliott, Dean of the Doctorate program, for a special registration password at L.elliott14@comcast.net, or 952-564-8222, by October 1st, 2025.

This provides participants the opportunity to learn from their peers along with time for informative discussion and fellowship.

CED 201 – Keynote Session

CED 202 – Focus Session

CED 850 – Commissioner Topics: Discussion Forums A, B, C, and D

Discussion topics include the following:

Forum A: Special Needs & Disabilities – Is it Misbehavior or Neurodiversity?

What is typical misbehavior and the reason behind it? What is Neurodiversity?

How does Neurodiversity impact a Scout's ability to behave "appropriately" at scouting events? What are activities, tools, tricks that work well with scouts who are misbehaving?

What are activities, tools, tricks that work well with scouts who have neurodiverse brains?

How to promote acceptance, "compliance" and fun?

Forum B – Recruiting for Diversity in the Community

How can diversity positively impact units? Where to look for diverse groups to connect with? What are some proven ways to connect/engage with diverse groups?

What activities/events work well for the different groups? What are some pitfalls to avoid?

Forum C – Roadmap for Successful Commissioner Visits

How Roadmap to Success (RtS) can be used in tandem with Commissioner Tools. Use the 8 points from RtS to generate discussion with unit leaders. How Commissioners can use RtS to run a good reflection. Remind why reflections are an important element in unit health.

Forum D – Commissioner Tools – How to Make Your Life Easier

Understanding the Dashboard data. Where to look for details. Know how to enter a visit.

How the phone application can reduce data entry time. How comments and visit summary can benefit discussion with unit leaders. How and when to make use of the Connection Guides.

DETAILED COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Bachelors Course

BCS 101 – Core Concepts of Units Service (Core)V

Discover the foundation of Scouting's commissioner service. This course offers a thorough overview of key concepts and practical skills needed to support and assess units effectively. Perfect for new and returning commissioners alike.

BCS 105 – Commissioners Building Unit Relationships (Elective) V

Build strong, lasting relationships with your units. This course provides strategies for recognizing early warning signs of trouble and introduces practical tools for conflict resolution and problem-solving.

BCS 106 – Coaching for Commissioners (Core)V

Gain confidence in using coaching methods to strengthen unit relationships. This course introduces a new coaching model to support commissioners in addressing challenges and guiding units to success.

BCS 114 – Building Relationships Across Generations (Core)V

Bridge the generational gap in Scouting. This course empowers commissioners to relate better with leaders of all ages, fostering inclusiveness and stronger communication within units.

BCS 201 – Let's Get Started Using Commissioner Tools (Core)V

Get hands-on with the updated Commissioner Tools. Learn how to efficiently use the streamlined interface, explore new features, and utilize advanced reporting functions for improved service delivery.

BCS 220 – Recruiting and Keeping Volunteers (Elective)

Learn how to turn parents into passionate leaders. This session provides the insights and techniques needed to recruit, engage, and empower volunteers for sustainable unit success.

BCS 223 – Commissioner Role in Relentless Recruiting (Elective)V

Fuel the growth of Scouting through effective recruiting. Discover how commissioners can lead units in a culture of continuous recruitment to keep programs vibrant and growing.

BCS 224 – Safety Moments Training for Commissioners (Elective)

Keep safety at the forefront of every activity. This interactive session emphasizes the importance of safety in planning and executing unit programs and how commissioners can promote a safety-first mindset

Masters Courses

MCS 302 Supporting Unit and Membership Renewal (Elective):

This session will examine how administrative commissioners, in particular unit commissioners, also support on-time unit and membership renewal.

MCS 304 Service to Units at Risk (Core) V: This session will provide commissioners with methods to identify units that encounter problems that are hindering the unit and to discuss the processes needed to support the unit's move toward performing as an effective scouting unit.

MCS 305 Resolving Critical Unit Issues (Elective):

This session will hone the commissioner's skills in assessing units, determining their strengths and weaknesses, and in developing plans to improve the functioning of the unit to avoid it becoming a "unit at risk."

MCS 306 Mentoring Skills (Elective) V:

This session delves into the best way to strengthen a unit by strengthening its leadership. Mentoring is an effective method in helping unit leaders develop their potential.

MCS 307 Serving Newly Formed Units (Elective):

This session explains why an engaged commissioner is critical for the success and retention of new units. New-unit commissioners focus on only new units, preferably a single unit, to which they have been assigned.

MCS 309 Good Commissioners Need Both Head & Heart (Elective) V:

This session helps define the role of a commissioner relative to the unit's leadership. Learn how to engage units to identify unit needs and understand unit culture.

MCS 406 Facilitation Skills (Core) V:

This session will teach commissioners several different techniques to improve your facilitation skills during a meeting, so participants are actively involved in the meeting.

MCS 408 Selecting and Developing Your Doctorate Project (Core) V:

This session will provide an overview of the process to develop a Doctorate Project to benefit an area of Scouting in commissioner service.

MCS 410 Coaching for Success and Managing Conflict (Elective) V:

This session will focus on developing coaching and problem-solving skills to retain/reenergize volunteers. It will also focus on gaining skills to manage an ineffective volunteer or issues and finding a common solution.

Doctorate Courses

DCS 506 – Coaching Commissioners (Core) V

Coaching is about relationships. It is the ability to listen, to observe, to share, to support and to engage in a way that will help others solve their own problems, grow as individuals, and attain their full potential. This course will explore how to coach in order to help others arrive at conclusions through their own analysis of the situation and facts.

DCS 507 – Recruiting for Diversity (Core) V

How we ensure every unit is supported to offer a quality Scouting program depends on our ability to recruit and empower commissioners. This course explores the need for and the definition of diversity. It will also explore practices to add to our recruiting practices.

DCS 509 – A Legacy of Servant Leadership (Core) V

The course explores characteristics of servant leaders, seeks a deeper understanding of servant leadership within Scouting, and recognizes the legacy of servant leadership, expanding on the concept of servant leadership introduced in earlier courses.

DCS 514 – Building Meaningful Relationships (Core) V

Commissioner Service is all about relationships. This session suggests ways in which commissioners may go about building and maintaining positive relationships with those they serve. It also discusses possible pitfalls that can undermine relationships.

DCS 604 – Project Presentation Seminar I (Core) V

These are sessions in which doctoral candidates have five minutes to present their pre-approved project abstract to other doctoral candidates and interested attendees at the College of Commissioner Service.

DCS 605 – Project Presentation Seminar II (Core) V

The continuation of DCS 604 Project Presentation Seminar 1.

Advanced Studies Courses

ASC 811 – Destructive Behaviors and Helpful Resources (Core)V

As a commissioner, your role as the “go to” person for help has expanded. As units begin to trust you as a partner in Scouting, the resources you need to know about have increased to meet the current mental state of our youth. Here are some helpful guidelines for identifying behaviors and some resources to help.

ASC 816 – Navigating Difficult Conversations (Core)V

Scouting is full of conversations. Most are pleasant and productive, but at times, differences can arise. Learn how to analyze the situation from a commissioner/coach point of view, identify tools to help navigate these difficult situations, and learn how to apply these tools to different situations.

ASC 818 – Commissioner Tools – Simple and Unified (Elective)

Commissioner tools in my.scouting.org have been recently modified. See how you can use the updated tools to best serve your units while being the single, best resource; Delivering great, S.A.F.E. programs; Enabling significant, sustainable growth.

ASC 819 – Onboarding new Commissioners (Elective)

You or others in your district have successfully recruited a new Unit Commissioner, but what do you do now and how do you keep them around. This course will go over the resources and techniques to successfully onboard a new Unit Commissioner including the commissioning process, mentoring them in their new role through the awarding of the arrowhead honor.

MCS 408 Selecting and Developing Your Doctorate Project (Elective) V

This session will provide an overview of the process to develop a Doctorate Project to benefit an area of Scouting in commissioner service

Doctorate of Commissioner Service Knot Award

The DCS Knot award recognizes completion of a standardized program leading to the award of the Doctor of Commissioner Service (DCS), along with tenure as a registered commissioner, and demonstrated performance of commissioner skills.

The DCS Knot encourages commissioners to provide support to units in their delivery of a quality program experience for all youth in Scouting, and also provide councils an opportunity to recognize commissioners for their tenured service, their dedication in learning more about delivery of quality Scouting, and their involvement in support of others.

The DCS Knot is separate from the CCS Doctorate degree, and requires additional effort to earn. The DCS Knot is available to any currently registered commissioner who has completed the requirements.

Applicants must serve as a registered commissioner for a minimum of five years. They must also complete the Doctor of Commissioner Service (DCS) Degree at a recognized College of Commissioner Service. Additionally, they must serve on the College of Commissioner Service staff (instructor or support staff), recruit or positively influence at least three new commissioners at any level, and earn the Commissioner's Key.

Application forms are available on the Northern Star Scouting web page at: <https://www.northernstar.org/portals/0/Forms/NSC-DCS-knot-application.pdf>
