10-10:50 AM Room: D309 Instructor: Tamara Mayrend

BCS104 Connecting with Units

At the heart of unit service are visits commissioners make with their units. This course explores methods of connecting to develop a relationship between commissioners and their units and how to document in Commissioner Tools.

9-9:50 AM Room: D309 Instructor: Kent Palmer

BCS101 Core Concepts of Unit Service

The commissioner role is one of the oldest in Scouting. This course reviews and reinforces the core concepts of unit service, identifying the key skills needed for commissioners to effectively assist the units they serve.

8-8:50 AM Room: D309 Instructor: Lara Lane

BCS155 Ensuring the Success of the Roundtable Team

An effective roundtable commissioner team is vital to the success of all roundtables. The roundtable commissioner team organization is as simple as it needs to be in a small district, and can be a more complex organization in a larger district. All members of the commissioner roundtable team need to understand the unique position of roundtable in the Scouting world. Roundtable provides a different method of unit service, but it is just as important. Roundtable also supplements the efforts of unit commissioners with the program support it provides.

2-2:50 PM Room: D312 Instructor: David Tamsen

BCS108 Mining Internet Resources

Commissioners are frequently asked many questions and are often assumed to be experts on a wide range of topics. Although the commissioner is a pillar of information and a link to resources, we might not always have the answers; however, knowing where to find information can make them a virtual expert. This course concentrates not on the local "who do you call" but on using the internet, in effect, mining internet resources.

12-12:50 PM Room: D309 Instructor: Matt McLane

BCS152 Planning, Implementing and Promoting Roundtables

In this course, the participants will learn how to plan and implement a roundtable to best serve the units in their districts and councils. They will also discuss how to promote roundtables to the units they serve and to new leaders.

10-10:50 AM Room: D312 Instructor: Laura Lyster

BCS154 Roundtable Fundamentals

Roundtable is often the first district event that a new leader attends. It is focused on FUN and giving new and seasoned leaders "the skill to do, and the will to do". Roundtable is important not only for the leaders but for the youth they bring the information back to. This course extends the learning material from Roundtable Commissioner Position-Specific Training.

1-1:50 PM Room: D312 Instructor: Steve Sarlitto

BCS153 Roundtables and Commissioner Tools

In this course, participants will learn how to use the Roundtable tab in Commissioner Tools. They will also learn to create PowerPivot table reports. For a participant to be fully engaged in the course, they must have access to a computer to use Commissioner Tools.

12-12:50 PM Room: D312 Instructor: Dave Fowler

BCS150 Roundtables in Unit Service

An effective roundtable is vital to the success of all unit service. This course reviews and reinforces how roundtables fit into the unit service structure by providing roundtable services to units and unit leaders.

BCS151 Supporting Units Through Roundtable: A Commissioner's Role

An effective roundtable commissioner team is vital to the success of all roundtables. The roundtable commissioner team organization is as simple as it needs to be in a small district, and can be a more complex organization in a larger district. It is important that all members of the commissioner roundtable team understand the unique position of roundtable in the Scouting world. Roundtable provides a different method of unit service, but it is just as important. Roundtable also supplements the efforts of unit commissioners with the program support it provides.

9-9:50 AM Room: D312 Instructor: David Tamsen

BCS102 The Unit and Membership Renewal Process

Unit and member renewals are two separate processes. Commissioners participate in and support the timely, error-free completion of the renewals.

11-11:50 AM Room: F122 Instructor: Wayne Hastings
Maximum number of participants: 147

BCS114 Understanding and Communicating with Today's Leaders

As commissioners, we need to understand the differences in relating to the generations involved in Scouting and inclusiveness. This course fosters understanding between different generations - particularly today's parents - to help commissioners communicate more effectively with their units.

1-1:50 PM Room: D309 Instructor: Whitney DeCamp

BCS116 Unit Connections: A Commissioner's Guide to Positive Impact

Connections between units and commissioners facilitate conversations that foster a deeper understanding of unit dynamics and operations, enabling commissioners to serve more effectively and support the unit. This course will guide you through making connections and effectively supporting your units in identifying challenges, developing solutions, and strengthening their programs.

MCS351 Conducting the Roundtable Planning Session

An effective roundtable program requires advanced planning. With this in mind, every district and council should have an advanced roundtable plan supported by the assistant council commissioner and assistant district commissioners who focus on roundtable as unit service. For more information, participants can also take BCS 152 - Planning, Implementation, and Promoting Roundtables.

This course will discuss roundtable planning in your district or council.

9-9:50 AM Room: D313 Instructor: Mauri Marshall

MCS312 Recruiting Commissioners in the 21st Century

All commissioners are responsible for recruiting other commissioners. This course familiarizes commissioners with the considerations and techniques that support recruiting volunteers who represent the diverse generations of the 21st century.

2-2:50 PM Room: D310 Instructor: Dave Fowler

MCS305 Resolving Critical Unit Issues

The purpose of this course is to hone the commissioner's skills in assessing units, determining their strengths and weaknesses, and in developing plans to improve the functioning of the unit. When collaborating with the unit Key 3, the commissioner may be able to help identify critical issues and keep the unit from becoming an "At-Risk" unit (MCS 304 - Service to Units at Risk).

9-9:50 AM Room: D310 Instructor: Gary Muir

MCS352 Roundtable is Over-Now What?

The district roundtable isn't over when the last chair is put away or when the host has closed the virtual meeting space. Some things need to be completed to help get ready for the next roundtable. This course explores the significance of feedback and evaluation in achieving successful future roundtables.

10-10:50 AM Room: D313 Instructor: Adam Lee

MCS358 Roundtable: Addressing Unit Challenges

The monthly roundtable plays a key role in unit service, enabling unit leaders to address their challenges and overcome roadblocks. A great roundtable team will deliver a quality event that encourages leaders to return each month.

This course is the culmination of the College of Commissioner Science material directly related to the monthly roundtable.

2-2:50 PM Room: D313 Instructor: Mauri Marshall

MCS304 Service to Units at Risk

Early detection and systematic problem-solving is critical to support units when they encounter problems which may prevent them from functioning effectively.

This class will provide the commissioner with ways to identify these units and to discuss the processes needed to support the unit's move toward performing as an effective scouting unit.

1-1:50 PM Room: D310 Instructor: Joe Auito

MCS307 Serving Newly Formed Units

An engaged commissioner is critical for the success and retention of new units. Commissioners designated as a new-unit commissioner focus on only new units, preferably a single unit to which they have been assigned.

10-10:50 AM Room: D310

MCS302 Supporting Unit and Membership Renewal

Unit and member renewal are two separate processes. Commissioners support units and retention by, among other things, supporting unit and member renewal. This session will examine how administrative commissioners, in particular unit commissioners, also support on-time unit and membership renewal.

11-11:50 AM Room: F122 Instructor: Wayne Hastings

MCS353 The Cub Scout Roundtable Breakout

At the end of this training, a commissioner will be able to:
Explain the importance and types of breakouts
Define the elements of a breakout and group engagement
Apply unit service and national resources

12-12:50 PM Room: D313 Instructor: Jim Chernenko

MCS354 The Scouts BSA Roundtable Breakout

The Scouts BSA breakout session focuses on the needs of troop leaders and helps them solve their problems and should help adult leaders learn Scout skills as needed to help their youth leaders plan and run the troop program.
The breakout session will also help adult leaders learn that roundtable commissioners provide unit service.

1-1:50 PM Room: D313 Instructor: Jim Chernenko

MCS350 Unit and Roundtable Commissioners Working Together

While unit commissioners and roundtable commissioners wear distinct position patches, denoting their field of expertise, both patches feature the wreath of service, and for good reason! Unit commissioners and roundtable commissioners collaborate to ensure that unit leaders have the necessary support to succeed. Remember: "Roundtable is unit service."

This course will demonstrate how all commissioners in a district assist units in identifying and addressing their needs.

8-8:50 AM Room: D313 Instructor: Adam Lee

MCS303 Unit Service Management at the District Level

Managing unit service in the district is the primary responsibility of the district commissioner, who is aided in this task by various assistant district commissioners. This course will familiarize students with the modules available in Commissioner Tools, enabling them to enhance their ability to support the unit.

12-12:50 PM Room: D310 Instructor: Brent Richards

MCS316 Unit Service Today

A contemporary approach to unit service has replaced the assessment-based approach, enabling commissioners to work more closely with unit leaders. This course explores these new concepts, which focus more on listening and less on data.

1-1:50 PM Room: D321 Instructor: David Ehrlich

DCS503 Developing Your Project or Thesis

Think of this as being similar to an Eagle Scout Project or Wood Badge Ticket. It can be done! Our goal is to have Commissioners meet with the successful completion of a thesis or project.

9-9:50 AM Room: D321 Instructor: Kurt Newman

DCS550 Leveraging Roundtables in Unit Service

Consistent communication throughout the unit service team, especially during the monthly district commissioner meeting, is key to providing effective service to units through the roundtable program.

At the end of this training, a commissioner will be able to:

- Explain how roundtables are leveraged in unit service
- Utilize the monthly district commissioner meeting to leverage roundtables in unit service

2-2:50 PM Room: D321 Instructor: Lara Lane

DCS512 Recruiting for Diversity

How do we ensure that every unit is supported to offer a quality Scouting program? Simple. We recruit and empower enough commissioners for the task. Throughout this course, we will gain a deeper understanding of the importance of diversity in Scouting volunteers, as well as strategies for recruiting a more diverse commissioner corps.

12-12:50 PM Room: D321 Instructor: Whitney DeCamp

DCS501 Selecting & Limiting Scope of Your Thesis or Project

Think of this as being similar to an Eagle Scout Project or Wood Badge Ticket. Our goal is to have commissioners meet with the successful completion of a thesis or project.

8-8:50 AM Room: D321 Instructor: Kurt Newman

DCS519 Turning Relationships into Partnerships

As commissioners, building relationships with our units is at the core of what we do. Turning that relationship into a partnership develops trust and shared success, which impacts unit service with our unit leaders.

This course prepares and helps commissioners build partnerships with unit leaders, strengthening the decision-making possibilities.

CED701 Combatting Commissioner Stress/Burnout

We've probably all had our moments when we ask ourselves, "Why are we involved in Scouting? Why are we doing this?" This course will explore ways to help overcome burnout and stressful situations, and motivate ourselves and others toward improved tenure in Scouting America.

9-9:50 AM Room: D320 Instructor: Mark Bentley

CED716 Navigating Difficult Conversations

Scouting is full of conversations. Most are pleasant and productive- but at times, differences can arise. It occurs whenever people disagree over their values, motivations, perceptions, ideas, or desires. Sometimes these differences appear trivial, but they can trigger strong emotions. As commissioners, we need to be able to navigate these difficult conversations in a way that leaves everyone feeling heard, understood and valued.

10-10:50 AM Room: D320 Instructor: Lonny Johnson

CED754 Roundtable Workshop

This roundtable workshop helps commissioners understand that units are best served when their needs are met. The workshop will help participants learn how to tailor roundtable to the current needs of their unit leaders.

12-12:50 PM Room: D320 Instructor: Steve Sarlitto

CED722 Supporting Mixed-Gender Scouting as a Commissioner

As commissioners, we respond to concerns from volunteers in various positions and also help prepare them to address concerns from Scouts and parents. Today's Scouting America programs continue to support the aims and methods of scouting, while expanding our reach to a larger audience. This course familiarizes commissioners with the considerations related to the expanded inclusion of girls in Scouting.
