What is Call of the Wild?

Call of the Wild is a fun-filled weekend campout designed for Cub Scouts and their families! Join us from Saturday morning through Sunday as we explore the great outdoors together.

Who Can Attend?

All Lions, Tigers, Wolves, Bears, Webelos, and their Cub Scout-age siblings are welcome, along with their parents or adult partners.

Why Not Arrow of Light Scouts?

Arrow of Light Scouts have their exciting program at the Fall Camporee alongside Scouts BSA, offering a more advanced experience just for them.

What Happens at Call of the Wild?

Cub Scouts will move through a series of fun and hands-on sessions designed to complete 4 Adventures. Webelos Scouts will complete 2 Adventures, which are more challenging and in-depth.

After the sessions wrap up, you'll have time to set up camp with your family and/or pack, enjoy a lively campfire program, and settle in for the night under the stars!

Activities You'll Experience:

- Hiking and outdoor exploration
- Crafts and hands-on projects
- Whittling (with safety instructions)
- Birdhouse building
- Fishing
- Camping skills
- Camp songs and skits
- ...and much more! (Activities are tailored to the Adventures being earned.)

Special Notes for Lions and Tigers

Lions and Tigers must have their adult partners participating with them at all times throughout the event to ensure safety and fun.

Where is Call of the Wild?

The adventure takes place at Cub World at Beaumont Scout Reservation, located off Hwy 44 in High Ridge, MO. Scouts will get to enjoy all of Cub World's exciting features, including the Pirate Ship, Mine, and Playground!

Meal Options:

Option 1: Meals provided by our Quartermasters includes Saturday lunch, Saturday dinner, and Sunday breakfast.

Option 2: Bring your meals for your family.

Important:

Be sure to pack snacks, especially for after the campfire!
