Scout Ushering Orientation

Duties: Most Important Duties

- Be Flexible, things change, and we need to change with them. We know there may be some additional duties and will provide information and direction as quickly as possible!
- Know where the seats are in your assigned section.
- Interact with as many people as possible by smiling and saying "Hello", "Hey, how is it going", whatever you are comfortable with. See - Friendly Attitude, Posture & Interaction section.
- Ask those who need help to see their ticket so you can give accurate instructions, give simple steps: "Go up these stairs to row 36 and turn left".
- Do not block people's view of the game
- Kindly ask others not to block people's view of the game or walking paths, such as portal entrances, doorways / stairs

Duties: Where and When to Arrive

- All personnel will be checking in at Gate 17 in the East Stadium. Plan to arrive between 3 and 2 hours before kickoff. Check in Closes at 2 hours to kick off. During check in you will show a photo ID to check you off of a list based on preseason sign-up and you will be issued a wristband.
- Once assigned to a Stadium (North, South, East, or West) your stadium Coordinator will let you know when & where you will have an orientation meeting prior to each game.
- Read the provided stadium notes for each game and ask questions as needed
 - if you do not believe you will arrive in time, make your Coordinator aware

Duties: On Duty at Post

- After you receive your assignments, you will be free to get food, go to the bathroom, etc. Up till 1.5 hours prior to the start of the game. We must be at our stations when the ticket gates open.
- National Anthem: Prior to the first note of the Anthem, face the flag, usually at the end of the field near the band, with your heels together, at Attention. Give the Scout Salute by forming the Scout sign with your right hand and then bring that hand upward until your forefinger touches the brim of your hat, arm at a right-angle. DO NOT remove your hat, as it is part of your uniform.

- No eating or holding drinks in your hands until the end of the 1st quarter of play
- Please do not chew gum on duty as it bothers many of our guests
- You must stay in your Class-A Uniform while in the stadium, shirt tucked in, cap on, etc.
- After the end of the 1st quarter, you need to find a place to sit or stand in or near your assigned sections. You can have any open seat or remain at your post if you wish. You must remain until the end of Game

Duties: Friendly Attitude, Posture & Interaction

- No matter how rushed you were arriving or what events took place on your way to the stadium, take a deep breath and prepare yourself mentally. Assume the following attitude:
 - ✓ Friendly
 - ✓ Outgoing
 - ✓ Proactive
 - ✓ Engaging
- Your posture needs to reflect openness to help others and get involved. Don't turn your back on people entering your area, no hands in pockets, etc.
- When you interact, be friendly, cheerful and helpful
 - ✓ SMILE: Smile at people and look them in the eyes
 - ✓ Keep people moving in a kind and unassuming manner (you may not see what is stalling their progress)
 - ✓ Don't take things personally, just help.
- See Something, Say Something, now! Report up regarding anything that seems out of the ordinary, dangerous or is making things difficult for fans.
