

There's a world of adventure awaiting Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts at The Durham Museum. From exploring our log cabin, to experiencing a Native American Earth lodge, your Scout Troop is invited to tour the museum and experience history together!

Girl Scouts

The Durham Museum is proud to offer several fun options for Girl Scouts of all ages, so there's sure to be one that's a great fit for your troop. Book a tour (offered year-round) or workshop and provide a memorable, educational outing for your scout group!

In addition, The Durham is proud to present the Celebrating our Community Badge for Brownies. There is no better place to complete these requirements than at The Durham Museum, Omaha's former Union Station and newest National Historic Landmark. Create a game to learn about Nebraska symbols, learn to march in a parade, and of course, visit a historic landmark!

Tours & Workshops

- $5/scout or chaperone
- troop leaders are admitted at no charge

Boy Scouts

The Durham Museum offers fun experiences for Boy Scouts of all ages. We offer year-round tours and workshops designed to help scouts check off a variety of requirements.

In addition, The Durham is proud to present the Tiger Tales Advancement for Tiger Scouts. There is no better place to complete these requirements than at The Durham Museum, Omaha's former Union Station and newest National Historic Landmark. Learn about tall tales and create your own, play games from the past in our Log Cabin, and of course, visit our historical museum, completing all the requirements for this advancement.

Tours & Workshops

Merit Badge Workshops

The Durham Museum provides six unique Merit Badge workshops, all set in our historic building using topic experts. Each workshop is offered on two different dates. Workshops are conveniently scheduled so that your troop can book two workshops in one day. Cost is $8/museum members and $10/non-members ($5 per chaperone) unless otherwise listed.

Citizenship in the Nation

September 15 or November 10, 2018 • 9AM-Noon

What is being a citizen all about? Requirement #2 of this badge suggests that Boy Scouts visit a National Historic Landmark or a location listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Why not visit an amazing local landmark that is both and have the opportunity to complete all of the requirements for this badge? Join us as we explore the Citizenship in the Nation!

American Heritage

September 15 or November 10, 2018 • 1PM-4PM

American Heritage is all about knowing the past and how it connects to the present. The Durham Museum is the perfect combination of past and present. Housed in Omaha's former Union Station, The Durham Museum is offering Boy Scouts a chance to meet all of the requirements of the American Heritage badge in a one-of-a-kind historic setting!

Coin Collecting

February 23 or April 20, 2019 • 9AM-Noon

The Durham Museum is home to the Byron Reed Coin Collection, considered to be one of the best coin collections in the country! Hear from coin experts about this amazing collection along with all of the other requirements for this special badge.

Indian Lore

February 23 or April 20, 2019 • 1PM-4PM

*$13/museum members and $15/non-members ($5 per chaperone)

Visit The Durham Museum's earth lodge and tipi to learn all about Indian Lore! In this workshop scouts will explore Native American games, storytelling, and artifacts from the museum's Native American collection and exhibits.

*Please note the workshop fee covers the cost of special supplies for this badge requirement.

Railroading

October 20, 2018 or March 16, 2019 • 9AM-Noon

Complete your Railroading Merit Badge at Omaha's own Union Station! During the peak of train travel in Omaha, this building welcomed over 10,000 people a day traveling by train. Scouts will explore the ins and outs of both historic and modern train travel while completing all of the requirements for this unique merit badge.

Textiles

October 20, 2018 or March 16, 2019 • 1PM-4PM

Did you know that The Durham Museum is home to an incredible collection of historic textiles? Our collection, in addition to modern textiles, will be used to show Scouts amazing examples of real-life textiles and how they can be used.

Please call The Durham Museum Education Department at 402-444-5027 or email education@DurhamMuseum.org, to make a reservation, or with any questions you may have.
