The Old Course, acknowledged among the “Top 100 Courses in the World” and the venue for the 2017 U.S. Women’s Open, features expansive bunkers and intricately designed greens set in serene environment. It perfectly harmonizes with the exceptional topography of the property, boasting undulating greens that offer flexibility for multiple hole placements and sizable, artfully crafted bunkers. The course layout presents a delightful array of holes traversing the open fields of the historic farm, navigating around numerous lakes, and winding through majestic groves of trees. The Old Course also hosted the LIV Golf Tournament two consecutive years in 2022 and 2023.
