2018 Membership Road Show Details

Topic	Description
	Best Practices A discussion containing a collection of successful ideas that councils and units around the country are sharing that led to success in recruiting new families through different strategies.
	New Member Coordinator Sustaining strong membership in a unit depends not only on having new members join the unit, but also on engaging youth and their families in the unit experiences so that they feel Welcome and want to stay. The role of the new member coordinator is to ensure that both keys to success take place.
	Lions Program Update Lion is transitioning from a pilot to an official Cub Scout rank and program taking effect for the 2018-2019 program year. Recognizing the success of the national Lion pilot program, the BSA's Board of Directors have approved integrating Lions into the Cub Scout program empowering chartered partners with packs to offer the experience to kindergarten-age children.
	Be A Scout Pin Online Applications The Boy Scouts of America now offers an online application process for youth and adults that can be completed from start to finish without a single piece of paper changing hands. There are important steps you must take to prepare!
	Family Scouting To better serve today's families, the BSA is opening all programs to females. In 2018, girls can be Cub Scouts in all-girl Dens in Family Packs or in all-girl Packs. In 2019, 11-to-17-year-old girls will be able to join all-girl Troops in "Scouts BSA," which is the new name for the current "Boy Scouts" program. Our priority is to bring the benefits of Scouting to more youth while remaining true to our mission.
	Scout Me In The tagline, Scout Me In, celebrates the BSA's historic decision to serve families and welcome girls and boys into Scouting so they can experience the character-building fun and adventure the program brings to life in communities across the country.

The Road Show stops are free and a meal is provided.

Those who attend will be entered a raffle to win one of two $50 social media marketing packages for their upcoming recruitments!
