TAUGHANNOCK DISTRICT WINTER CAMPOREE'S

GOLDEN TICKET

GREETINGS TO YOU THE LUCKY FINDER OF THIS GOLDEN TICKET FROM TAUGHANNOCK DISTRICT'S CAPS COMMITTEE

Present this ticket at the Camp Barton Dining Hall on Saturday January 27th between 8.30 and 8.45 am. And do not be late.

You should bring your whole patrol... and no one else...

(or maybe you can bring a leader or two as well)

In your wildest dreams, you can imagine the marvelous SURPRISES that await YOU!

Oh yes, and you must have pre-registered at https://scoutingevent.com/368-77088. Cost is $10 per youth, including event patch. Adults are free. If you volunteer to run a station you get an event patch, otherwise patches are $2.50. Sled content requirements will be shared after registration is closed.

Agenda for Saturday, January 27th:

08.45 Factory personnel introductions outside the dining hall (i.e. Opening)
09.00 Gates open. Patrols visit various parts of the factory according to the schedule provided at check-in 11.30 – 12.45 Mandatory break for lunch and S'more judging*
13.00 - 15.25 Continued factory visitation
15.45 Meet at the factory gates with your sled ready to race other patrols
16.15 Back at the factory gates, be ready to pull others across a chocolate river
16.30 Verbal Communications and closing

*S'mores are defined as a sweet snack sandwich to include toasted marshmallow and chocolate. If you want your patrol S'more to be judged, please present one S'more together with it's title and an ingredient list to the judges in the dining hall by 12.50 pm. And don't forget your patrol name and troop number!

Friday and Saturday night: The sale of Camp Barton is expected to go through before the camporee. We hope that cabins will be available as normal so CAPS will keep a list of who wants what. Let CAPS@TCScouts.org know if you want updates as to cabin availability, and which cabin/s you would like.
