2024 Campership Application

The purpose of the Campership Program is to ensure that summer camp is available to deserving Scouts who are unable to afford attendance fees as a result of various personal circumstances and hardships. This program serves as a supplemental method of support as part of a shared effort amongst the unit, the Scouts family, and the granted campership.

Details of the application are confidential. Only those forms completed in full will be accepted.

This application MUST be signed by the Parent / Guardian & Unit Leader of the requesting Scout.
