SPECIALTY & HIGH ADVENTURE PROGRAMS

When you journey to Camp Barton you are not only heading to a 102 year institute of Scouting, you are also entering a region of New York that is extremely diverse in science, exploration, recreation, and culture.

Our Specialty and High Adventure programs are exclusive to Camp Barton. They have been designed and developed by experienced professionals and Camp Barton Staff. Each program highlights an amazing avenue for exposure and activity for Scouts who are ready for challenge and adventure.

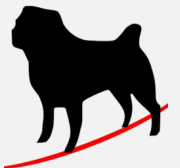

While merit badges and advancement remain a critical part of a Scouts development, experiences are equally if not more critical to their journey through Scouting.

We encourage every Scout and every Adult to consider these when planning your participation at Camp Barton.

We are proud to offer these opportunities and stand behind their quality.

Registration for each of these programs is through Black Pug

Programs are offered only on select weekends based on instructor availability

Sidney Winter Trail – First & Second Class Rank Advancement Program for First and Second Year Campers.

Full Weekend Session Inclusive of:

- ✓ Dedicated Learning, Practice, and Refinement of Fundamental Scouting Skills
- ✓ Advancement driven tasks encompassing Tenderfoot, Second Class, and First Class Rank Requirements
- ✓ This program is a great first step into the Summer Camp experience for a newly crossed over Cub. It balances the exposure to skills and experiences, while allowing time for the Scout to explore and try a variety of opportunities in different areas of program!

Scouts should select the Sidney Winter Program in their course catalog and register according to whether they are attending the program as part of a unit or as a provisional camper. The Sidney Winter Program will block their entire weekend schedule.

SCHEDULE

Be sure to review the Sidney Winter Trail Schedule. It Looks Like This

This schedule fits within the standard weekend format of each session.

Sidney Winter Trail participants are engaged in activity and experiences that Scouts only experience in the camp setting.

We take the requirements on paper necessary for advancement and put them into practical applications the Scouts can experience and navigate. The Sidney Winter Trail is the pathway to a Scouts successful entry into the program and aids in the retainment of their participation by starting them off with a fun, exciting, and challenging first step!

Sidney Winter Trail runs concurrently with Badges At Barton during select sessions. Scouts are enrolled into the program individually. Adult Volunteers are encouraged to partake in the leadership of this program to assist our staff.

Rev. Sidney Winter served on Camp Barton's staff during much of the 1930's – mid 1940's. He was the 6th individual to serve as Camp Director from 1941-1942. Rev. Winter was widely known across the region in Scouting and was a favorite of the Scouts he led. Rev. Winter was known for his sternness, his high expectations, and his passion for the foundations of Scouting.

The Sidney Winter Trail program exists in his name to carry on not only his legacy, but the importance of the early ranks in Scouting and their contributions to each generation that carries the light forward.

Need to know....

Helmsman... Defined as "A person who steers a ship or a boat".... Sounds pretty simple right?? ...If it were, there would be a lot of Helmsman, but in actuality, the term represents a much smaller portion of the men and women who hold the highest responsibilities onboard a variety of watercraft. Helmsmen hold the highest rank of the operational level on vessel. They perform a variety of duties concerned with the operation and upkeep of deck department areas, the engine and other equipment, mooring and unmooring, as well as steering the ship.

Helmsman participants are provided a unique opportunity to apply basic knowledge, interest, and passion towards the responsibilities that come with the use of water vessels. At Camp Barton, we have focused in on this concept through the sport of sailing. Sailing provides an optimal exposure and demand for individual skill, team skill, knowledge, and execution. Cayuga Lake itself provides an optimal environment for this experience. One you will not find in many other Scout based locations.

SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF THE HELMSMAN PROGRAM INVOLVES:

- SKILL DEMONSTRATION & COMPETENCY
- ATTENDANCE, COMMITMENT, ENTHUSIASM, & EFFORT
- DEMONSTRATION OF SCOUT SPIRIT & POINTS OF SCOUT LAW
