

2025 Massawepie Merit Badge Prerequisites
Foreword For Leaders and Parents:	At Massawepie, scouts are going to be exposed to new things through their selected merit badge program. Some of these merit badges have a set of requirements that may require the scout to work on them outside of the week-long time they have to explore them at camp. While these requirements are stated as a pre-requisite for the merit badge, I'd like to invite you to think about these as post-requisites as well. Do not feel stressed if your scout does not complete these requirements before camp begins. We must always remember that at summer camp, fun and adventure come first. Camp can be a great way to spark an interest in a new subject for a scout to be explored afterwards as well. In this guide, you will find the pre-requisite requirements for all scheduled and open program merit badges offered at Massawepie for 2024 as well as some special considerations to note about specific merit badges/programs. Please enjoy, and I will see you at camp this summer! -Tyge Kelley Program Director, MSC Camp Pioneer
Merit Badge	Prerequisite	Requirement & Expectations
Archeology	7	Do One of the Following: a. Visit a museum to observe how artifacts aid in conveying history. b. Present to your counselor a significant family artifact/heirloom and discuss its history. c. Make a list of the trash your family throws out during one week. Discuss with your counselor what archaeologists might learn about you and your family if they found your trash a thousand years from now.
		a. Bring a flyer/ brochure from the museum, please bring a list of at least five Artifacts that interest you, and what you were able to learn from them b. Bring the Item, or a picture of it to camp, and be prepared to discuss why it is important to your family c. Bring your trash log with you to camp and be prepared to discuss how thinking about what we throw away is relevant to Archeology
	10	10 Do either A or B of the following: (a) With your parent or guardian's and counselor's permission, assist a qualified archaeologist for at least eight hours with a project being worked on. Projects may include surveying, site monitoring, site stabilization, excavation, laboratory analysis, use of digital archaeological technology, or public outreach. Describe your involvement in the project, what you learned about archaeology, and the steps of archaeological inquiry. (b) With your counselor's approval, take part in a simulated archaeological project designed by a qualified archaeologist. The project must include the use of a simulated archaeological site including artifacts and features for the site. Using the steps of archaeological inquiry, analyze the "artifacts and features" and document the spatial relationships of the "artifacts and features" at the simulated site. Explain how the environment and time can affect the interpretation of an artifact and the overall archaeological site. Tell how you would share the results of your analysis with other researchers and the public. Come to camp with some notes from your research or project; be prepared to share what you learned about the people who lived in your area with the rest of the class.
Architecture	1a	Tour your community and list the different types of buildings you see. Try to identify buildings that can be associated with a specific period of history or style of architecture. Make a sketch of the building you most admire.
		Come to camp with pictures, sketches, and notes taken in the community you toured.
Art	6	With your parent's permission and your counselor's approval, visit a museum, art exhibit, art gallery, artists' co-op, or artist's workshop. Find out about the art displayed or created there. Discuss what you learn with your counselor.
		The Scout should bring a photo of themselves at the museum or bring a pamphlet from the museum to camp. Be prepared to discuss what you saw and what you learned from the experience

Athletics	3	Select an athletic activity to participate in for one season (or four months). Then do the following: a. With guidance from your counselor, establish a personal training program suited to the activity you have chosen. b. Organize a chart for this activity and monitor your progress during this time. c. Explain to your counselor the equipment necessary to participate in this activity, and the appropriate clothing for the season and the locale. d. At the end of the season, discuss with your counselor the progress you have made during training and competition and how your development has affected you mentally and physically.
		The scout should bring a letter from their parent, leader, or coach stating that they have participated in a sport. Please bring your training program and monitoring chart to camp.
	5	Complete the activities in FOUR of the following groups and show improvement over a three-month period. (See groups in pamphlet or online).
		The scout can write recordings of beginning and ending scores, times, or results and bring them to camp, Or record beginning scores, times, or results at camp and complete at home.
Bird Study; By appointment	2	Show that you are familiar with the terms used to describe birds by doing the following: (a) Sketch or trace a perched bird and then label 15 different parts of the bird. (b) Sketch or trace an extended wing and label six types of wing feathers.
		The scout should bring the sketches with them to camp.
	5	Observe and be able to identify at least 20 species of wild birds. Prepare a field notebook, making a separate entry for each species, and record the following information from your field observations and other references. (a) Note the date and time. (b) Note the location and habitat. (c) Describe the bird's main feeding habitat and list two types of food that the bird is likely to eat. (d) Note whether the bird is a migrant or a summer, winter, or year-round resident of your area.
		Bring the completed field notebook to camp.
		Explain the function of a bird's song. Be able to identify five of the 20 species in your field notebook by song or call alone. Explain the difference between songs and calls. For each of these five species, enter a description of the song or call, and note the behavior of the bird making the sound. Note why you think the bird was making the call or song that you heard.
	8	Bring the completed field notebook to camp.
		Do ONE of the following: (a) Go on a field trip with a local club or with others who are knowledgeable about birds in your area. (1) Keep a list or fill out a checklist of all the birds your group observed during the field trip. (2) Tell your counselor which birds your group saw and why some species were common and some were present in small numbers. (3) Tell your counselor what makes the area you visited good for finding birds. (b) By using a public library, the internet, or contacting the National Audubon Society, find the name and location of the Christmas Bird Count nearest your home and obtain the results of a recent count. (1) Explain what kinds of information are collected during the annual event. (2) Tell your counselor which species are most common, and explain why these birds are abundant. (3) Tell your counselor which species are uncommon, and explain why these were present in small numbers. If the number of birds of these species is decreasing, explain why, and what, if anything, could be done to reverse their decline. (c) Participate in a bird banding program with an approved federal or state agency, university researcher, bird observatory, or certified private individual. (1) Explain who is able to band birds and why. (2) Explain why birds get banded. (3) Explain what kinds of birds get banded. (4) Tell how the birds were captured, the number of bird species recorded during your visit, and your role in the program.
		Bring materials from the option you chose to show you participated in the research/trip.
		Do ONE of the following. For the option you choose, describe what birds you hope to attract, and why. (a) Build a bird feeder and put it in an appropriate place in your yard or another location. (b) Build a birdbath and put it in an appropriate place. (c) Build a backyard sanctuary for birds by planting trees and shrubs for food and cover. (d) Build a nest box for a species of your choice using plans approved by your counselor.
	9	Bring pictures and other materials of the completed project

Collections; by appointment	All	Scout must have a developed collection, excluding coins or stamps. The scout should bring their actual collection or photos of their collection to camp. Counselors will discuss requirements with each scout during open program, but they should consult Requirements and be able to answer questions about their collection before attending the Class. If Interested please consult requirements online before coming to camp

Cooking	4	Using the MyPlate food guide or the current USDA nutrition model, plan menus for three full days of meals (three breakfasts, three lunches, and three dinners) plus one dessert. Your menus should include enough to feed yourself and at least one adult, keeping in mind any special needs (such as food allergies) and how you keep your foods safe and free from cross-contamination. List the equipment and utensils needed to prepare and serve these meals. Then do the following: a. Find recipes for each meal. Create a shopping list for your meals showing the amount of food needed to prepare for the number of people you will serve. Determine the cost for each meal. b. Share and discuss your meal plan and shopping list with your counselor. c. Using at least five of the 10 cooking methods from requirement 3, prepare and serve yourself and at least one adult (parent, family member, guardian, or other responsible adult) one breakfast, one lunch, one dinner, and one dessert from the meals you planned.* d. Time your cooking to have each meal ready to serve at the proper time. Have an adult verify the preparation of the meal to your counselor. e. After each meal, ask a person you served to evaluate the meal on presentation and taste, then evaluate your own meal. Discuss what you learned with your counselor, including any adjustments that could have improved or enhanced your meals. Tell how planning and preparation help ensure a successful meal. The scout can bring a letter from their parent or leader stating that they have planned, cooked, and received evaluation of their meals. And scout should bring in a copy of their menus, shopping lists, and equipment lists.
	6	Trail and backpacking meals. Do the following: a. Using the MyPlate food guide or the current USDA nutrition model, plan a meal for trail hiking or backpacking that includes one breakfast, one lunch, one dinner, and one snack. These meals must consider weight, not require refrigeration and are to be consumed by three to five people (including you). List the equipment and utensils needed to prepare and serve these meals. b. Create a shopping list for your meals, showing the amount of food needed to prepare and serve each meal, and the cost for each meal. c. Share and discuss your meal plan and shopping list with your counselor. Your plan must include how to repackage foods for your hike or backpacking trip to eliminate as much bulk, weight, and garbage as possible. d. While on a trail hike or backpacking trip, prepare and serve two meals and a snack from the menu planned for this requirement. At least one of those meals must be cooked over a fire, or an approved trail stove (with proper supervision). e. After each meal, have those you served evaluate the meal on presentation and taste, then evaluate your own meal. Discuss what you learned with your counselor, including any adjustments that could have improved or enhanced your meals. Tell how planning and preparation help ensure successful trail hiking or backpacking meals. f. Explain to your counselor how you should divide the food and cooking supplies among the patrol in order to share the load. Discuss how to properly clean the cooking area and store your food to protect it from animals. Scouts should bring a letter from their leader stating that they have planned, cooked, and received evaluation for their meals. And scout should bring in a copy of their menus, shopping lists, and equipment lists. Scout should be prepared to talk about how they followed outdoor ethics principles
Electricity	2	Complete an Electrical home safety inspection of your home, using the check list found in this pamphlet (Electricity Merit badge Pamphlet) or one approved by your counselor. Discuss what you find with your counselor You can use the .Gov checklist below, or use the one from the electricity merit badge pamphlet. Bring that checklist with you to camp and be prepared to discuss. https://www.cpsc.gov/s3fs-public/513.pdf
	7	Make a floor plan wiring diagram of light, switches, and outlets for a room in your home. Show which fuse or circuit breaker protects each one. Bring this diagram with you to camp and be prepared to discuss

Emergency Preparedness	1	Earn the First Aid merit badge.
		Scout can bring a letter stating that they have earned First Aid or be concurrently enrolled in First Aid at camp.
	7	Do the following: a. Take part in an emergency service project, either a real one or a practice drill, with a Scouting unit or a community agency. b. Prepare a written plan for mobilizing your troop when needed to do emergency service. If there is already a plan, explain it. Tell your part in making it work.
		Scout should bring a letter stating that they have taken part in an emergency drill and share their experiences with his counselor. Scout should bring a written plan or a copy of the troop's plan to camp.
First Aid	1	Prepare a personal emergency service pack for a mobilization call. Prepare a family kit (suitcase or waterproof box) for use by your family in case an emergency evacuation is needed. Explain the needs and uses of the contents.
		Scout can bring their actual service pack or a photo of it to camp.
	5	Satisfy your counselor that you have current knowledge of all first aid requirements for Tenderfoot rank, Second Class rank, and First Class rank.
		Scout should bring a note from their Scoutmaster stating that they have completed these rank requirements or the Scoutmaster may discuss this with the counselor at camp. Scout should still be prepared to review these requirements in class to demonstrate their knowledge
Fishing	9	5. Do the following: (a) Prepare a first-aid kit for your home. Display and discuss its contents with your counselor. (b) With an adult leader, inspect your troop's first-aid kit. Evaluate it for completeness. Report your findings to your counselor and Scout leader.
		a. Scout can bring their actual kit to camp, or they may take photos of the kit and bring them to camp. b. Please bring a written evaluation of the first aid kit to camp. This can also be completed during the week in the campsite if necessary.
	8	Catch at least one fish and identify it. If regulations and health concerns permit, clean and cook a fish you have caught. Otherwise, acquire a fish and cook it.
		Scout can take photo of the fish when caught and when cooked, or bring a letter from their leader or parent stating that they have caught and cooked a fish.
Game Design	8	Do ONE of the following: (a) With your parent or guardian's permission and your counselor's approval, visit with a professional in the game development industry and ask them about their job and how it fits into the overall development process. (b) Alternatively, meet with a professional in game development education and discuss the skills they emphasize in the classroom.
		For Rochester troops, reaching out to RIT game development faculty would be a good option, each individual Professor has their contact information listed publicly online. Remember when looking at this requirement that Game design doesn't just mean video games! If a scout completed this requirement they should come prepared with notes from their interview, and ready to discuss the content with their counselor. Please remember that pre-requisites can also be post-requisites and worked on after the summer; we expect a fair number of scouts to receive partials and work on this requirement in the fall.

Geocaching; By Appointment	7	With your parent or guardian's permission, go to www.geocaching.com . Type in your city and state to locate public geocaches in your area. Share with your counselor the posted information about three of those geocaches. Then, pick one of the three and find the cache.
		Scout can bring to camp a print-out of three geocaches. And scout can bring to camp a letter stating that they have found the cache or photos of them finding the cache.
	8c	Set up and hide a public geocache, following the guidelines in the Geocaching merit badge pamphlet. Before doing so, share with your counselor a three-month maintenance plan for the geocache where you are personally responsible for those three months. After setting up the geocache, with your parent or guardian's permission, follow the logs online for 30 days and share them with your counselor. You must archive the geocache when you are no longer maintaining it.
		Scout can bring a letter to camp stating that they have set up a geocache or photos showing that they have set up a geocache. Scout can bring their maintenance plan to camp and report on the logs online for the 30 day period.
Hiking; By Appointment	4	Plan a geohunt for a youth group such as your troop or a neighboring pack, at school, or your place of worship. Choose a theme, set up a course with at least four waypoints, teach the players how to use a GPS unit, and play the game. Tell your counselor about your experience, and share the materials you used and developed for this event.
		Bring pictures, materials, and a report to camp.
	5	Take four 10-mile hikes and one 20-mile hike, each on a different day, and each of continuous miles. Prepare a written hike plan before each hike and share it with your merit badge counselor or a designee for approval before starting the hike. Include map routes, a clothing and equipment list, and a list of items for a trail lunch. You may stop for as many short rest periods as needed, as well as one meal, during each hike, but not for an extended period such as overnight.*
		Scout should bring a letter to camp from their leader stating that they have completed the five hikes. Bring all hike plans to camp.
Lifesaving	2a	After each of the hikes (or during each hike if on one continuous "trek") in requirement 4, write a short report on your hike. For each hike, give the date and description (or map) of the route covered, the weather, any interesting things you saw, and any challenges you had and how you overcame them. It may include something you learned about yourself, about the outdoors, or about others you were hiking with. Share this with your merit badge counselor.*
		Scout should bring each report to camp for counselor review.
Scouting Heritage	5	Scout has Completed or is Currently Taking the Swimming Merit Badge
		Have a written letter or advancement record from your leader that you have completed swimming merit badge
	6	5. Learn about the history of your unit or Scouting in your area. Interview at least two people (one from the past and one from the present) associated with your troop. These individuals could be adult unit leaders, Scouts, troop committee members, or representatives of your troop's chartered organization. Find out when your unit was originally chartered. Create a report of your findings on the history of your troop, and present it to your patrol or troop or at a court of honor, and then add it to the troop's library. This presentation could be in the form of an oral/written report, an exhibit, a scrapbook, or a computer presentation such as a slide show.
		Bring your report with you to camp, and be prepared to share with the class
Scouting Heritage	6	6. Make a collection of some of your personal patches and other Scouting memorabilia. With their permission, you may include items borrowed from family members or friends who have been in Scouting in the past, or you may include photographs of these items. Show this collection to your counselor, and share what you have learned about items in the collection. (There is no requirement regarding how large or small this collection must be.)
		Bring your collection, or a picture of your collection and be prepared to discuss with the class

Signs Signals and Codes; by appointment only	7	On a Scout outing, lay out a trail for your patrol or troop to follow. Cover at least one mile in distance and use at least six different trail signs and markers. After the Scouts have completed the trail, follow no-trace principles by replacing or returning trail markers to their original locations.
		Bring evidence to camp of this trail and a group following this trail.
Sports	4	With guidance from your counselor, establish a personal training program suited to the activities you choose for requirement 5. Then do the following: (a) Create a chart and use it to track your training, practice, and development in these sports for one season (or four months). (b) Demonstrate proper technique for your two chosen sports. (c) At the end of the season, share your completed chart with your counselor and discuss how your participation in the sports you chose has affected you mentally and physically
		Scout can bring their completed program and charted progress to camp and discuss their experiences with their counselor.
	5	Take part for one season (or four months) as a competitive individual or as a member of an organized team in TWO of the following sports: baseball, basketball, bowling, cross-country, diving, field hockey, flag football, flag team, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, soccer, softball, spirit/cheerleading, swimming, tackle football, table tennis, tennis, track & field, volleyball, water polo and wrestling, and/or badminton. Your counselor may approve in advance other recognized sports.* Then with your chosen sports do the following: (a) Give the rules and etiquette for the two sports you picked. (b) List the equipment needed for the two sports you chose. Describe the protective equipment and appropriate clothing (if any) and explain why it is needed. (c) Draw diagrams of the playing areas for your two sports.
		Scouts should bring a letter from their parent, leader, or coach to camp stating that they have participated in two sports for one season each. Martial Arts Involving Contact such as Wrestling, Karate, or Judo are not permitted by the BSA to Satisfy this requirement.
Theater	1	1. See or read three full-length plays.* Write a review of each. Discuss with your counselor the plot or story. If you chose to watch the plays, comment on the acting and the staging. (* Watching plays on television, video, or as a movie is not permitted.)
		Read/ view the plays and write your reviews before camp, bring your written reviews and be prepared to discuss at camp, Plays/Musicals are both acceptable. Be prepared to discuss each show/play with the class
Wilderness Survival	5	5. Put together a personal survival kit and be able to explain how each item in it could be useful.
		Scout can bring their actual kit to camp, or they may take photos of the kit and bring them to camp. They should be able to discuss each component of their kit and why they chose to include it

Special Considerations
Merit Badge(s)	Special Considerations
