How to Use Google Classroom

A screenshot of a Google Classroom class page for 'Camp Racdeever'. The page has three tabs: 'Stream', 'Classwork', and 'People'. The 'Stream' tab is active. Below the tabs is a header image with the class name, week, class code, and a meet link. Below that is a section for 'Upcoming' assignments, which is currently empty. Below that is a post from 'Eric Panetta' with a welcome message and a question. There are three callout boxes: a blue one pointing to the 'Classwork' tab, a pink one pointing to the 'Stream' tab, and a yellow one pointing to the '+ Add or Create' button in the post.

The Classwork tab is where you can find the activities or requirements for your classes. Click on each assignment to learn more about the activity.

The Stream is the main page on Google Classroom. This is where your instructor will be able to communicate with you (and you can communicate with your instructor)!

When viewing an assignment, you can click on the + Add or Create button to attach a picture or document. Many of the afternoon activities will be asking you to attach a picture to earn points!
