Camp Cutler Cast Iron Chef

Weekend

Ahh, November camping! The air is crisp, the woods are open and hot meals cooked over the camp fire or coals always taste delicious! Come Camp at Camp Cutler for the weekend to enjoy the late fall weather and to show off your unit's cooking skills and learn from other units and scouters about the unlimited opportunities for camp cooking. You can visit unit camp sites to view cooking skills and visit a camp cooking midway for more learning and perhaps a little sampling! Check out treats like Trash Can Turkey, Dutch oven Cobbler, Stews, Brownies and more!

- While at camp you can participate in activities such as:
 - Archery - Weather dependent
 - Sling Shots - Weather dependent
