

AOL WEEKEND

Join us for Arrow of Light Weekend, an exciting, action-packed experience designed to prepare Scouts for the transition into a Scouts BSA Troop. This unforgettable weekend is more than just fun — it's an important milestone on your Scouting journey.

Scouts will team up in patrols, dive into hands-on activities, and get a real taste of what it means to be part of a Troop. They'll build confidence, learn new skills, and form lasting connections — all while having an amazing time outdoors.

Whether you're ready to cross over soon or just want to see what's next, Arrow of Light Weekend is the perfect way to take that next big step.
