Swim tests are will not be available at Camp Reeves. In order for a Scout to participate in aquatics activities, he must have a swim test prior to camporee. Although swim tests are conducted away from camp, the aquatics director shall at all times reserve the authority to review or retest all participants to assure the standards have been maintained.

Only swimmers will be allowed to participate in the waterfront activities that are in the watercraft.

This form must be in the aquatic director’s possession before your Scouts will be allowed to participate in aquatics activities.

IN CASE OF FIRE
REPORTING AND ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS

At some camps local changes are made in these suggested procedures. All exceptions, however, should be made on the recommendation and with the approval of local fire authorities.

IN A UNIT CAMPSITE

1. Sound the alarm by yelling "Fire!" and then notify the first adult you see, then report to a camp officer or the camp fire warden.
2. Extinguish a fire only if it can be done quickly and easily.
3. When the central alarm is sounded to warn the camp, quickly mobilize in your unit. Move to your preassigned point immediately and await directions.
4. A runner reports to the camp office for instructions from the camp fire warden.
5. In the event of a tent fire, you can douse it with water or sand, or simply stand back and let professionals fight the fire.

OUTSIDE UNIT CAMPSITE

1. If you discover a fire anywhere in camp, report immediately to the camp office so the alarm may be sounded and fire authorities notified.
2. Camp fire warden sounds the central alarm, and your unit follows steps 3 and 4 above.
3. Remember: Campers should not be directly involved in the fire fighting process except for fires that can be quickly and easily extinguished.

In case of a fire in our campsites, we will notify _____ Camp fire warden and follow the instructions of our unit fire warden.

FLAMMABILITY WARNING CAMPING SAFETY RULES

NO TENT MATERIAL IS FIREPROOF, AND IT CAN BURN WHEN EXPOSED TO HEAT OR FIRE. FOLLOW THESE RULES:

- Only flashlights and battery-powered lanterns are permitted in tents. NO FLAMES IN TENTS is a rule which must be enforced.
- Chemical-fueled stoves, heaters, lanterns, lighted candles, matches, or other flame sources should never be used in or near tents.
- Do not pitch tents near open fire.
- Do not use flammable chemicals near tents: charcoal lighter, spray cans of paint, or bug killer and repellent.
- Be careful when using electricity and lighting in tents.
- Always extinguish cooking and campfires properly.
- Obey all fire laws, ordinances, and regulations.
- Keep campers informed on a daily basis of your camp's fire danger.

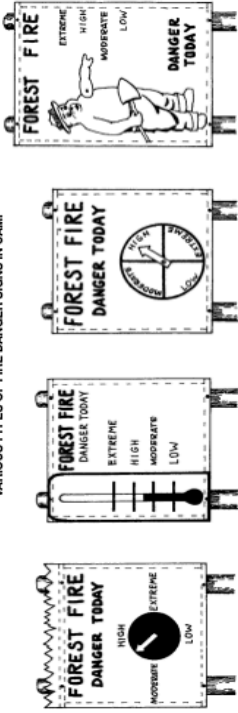

Clearing all burnable material 4 to 6 feet away from the fires or as required by local law.

In the case of Cub Scouts, they should immediately seek adult help, sound the alarm by yelling, "Fire!" and stay away from attempting to fight any camp fire. If adult help is not readily available, the Cub Scout should continue to sound the alarm, send a runner for help, and/or dial the camp office or 911.

VARIOUS TYPES OF FIRE DANGER SIGNS IN CAMP

HOW YOUR UNIT FIREGUARD PLAN WORKS

DUTIES

When you arrived at camp, you were oriented and trained in the use of the unit fireguard plan. It is your responsibility as a unit leader to train your Scouts in fire prevention, fire detection, reporting, and fire control. Only implement fire control techniques that can be done quickly and easily.

Study the procedures outlined on this chart and then train your staff and youth members. Post the chart for all to see and follow. At some camps local changes are made in these suggested procedures. All exceptions, however, should be made on the written recommendation and with the approval of local fire authorities.

Organize to make the fireguard plan work by appointing capable fire wardens and deputies.

FIRE WARDENS AND DEPUTIES

As responsible Scouts appointed by their adult leader, the unit fire warden and his deputy are in charge of fire prevention and control. Their primary responsibility is to inspect and test the fireguard chart. They instruct all unit fire wardens and Scouts in the operation of the camp fireguard plan. They conduct annual inspections of fire extinguishers and check to be sure all cooking fires, heating fires, and campfires are out at night or when no one is attending or monitoring the fire during the day. Unit fire wardens and deputies conduct fire drills at least once a week and follow the direction of the camp fire warden. They receive reports related to fire hazards daily from the duty fire warden.

Every boy in the unit should feel responsible for fire prevention, but the unit fire patrol for each day must be alert and ready to evacuate and account for everyone in case of fire emergency or drill.

If a small fire breaks out, the person discovering it should take immediate action, whether or not he is on the fire patrol for the day. Time is the most important element in the suppression of a fire. Some examples of fire control techniques are:

- Immediately send someone to seek assistance, send a runner for help, and/or dial the camp office or 911.
- Douse fire with water or sand.
- Smother fire with a lid.
- In the event of a tent fire (canvases only), simply kick out the end tent poles if it can be done safely.

Remember: Campers should not be involved in the fire fighting process except for fires that can be quickly and easily extinguished.

In making daily inspections of the unit campsite, the unit fire warden should follow the fire-prevention and use of fire-fighting equipment illustrations and diagrams in this chart as a guide. Campsite fire wardens will sign the fireguard chart for their camp. Results of the daily inspection should be posted on the chart in the space provided.

PATROL FIRE WARDEN

The patrol leader is responsible for training his patrol in the unit fireguard plan and leading the unit in practice evacuation and fire prevention.

He checks daily to be sure all members are preventing fires and are prepared in case a fire breaks out. He makes sure and double-checks that fires are built only on nonburnable soil in areas where they will not spread. He verifies to see that all fires are put COLD OUT and that open flames are not permitted in or near tents. He shows patrol members how to drop tents (canvases only) in the event of a tent fire (canvases only). You can simply kick out the end tent poles if it can be done safely and let professionals fight the fire.

emotional campfires. Solid-type starters are just as effective, are easier to store and carry, and are much safer to use for this purpose.

- Space heaters that use chemical fuels consume oxygen and must be used only in well-ventilated areas. Using space heaters in poorly ventilated cabins, camper trucks, and recreation vehicles can cause fires and asphyxiation. The use of charcoal burners indoors can be lethal in causing carbon monoxide poisoning.

Bulk Storage and Practices

Storage of liquid fuel and other flammables is a camp maintenance function. Filing tanks for motors, vehicles, and motorboats should always be handled by someone qualified by age and training. The use of fuel storage tanks, containers, and control are prescribed for the limited use of kerosene. Use kerosene only for outside night lights and stationary heating stoves (not portable). Both gasoline and kerosene should be kept in well-marked safety cans and stored in ventilated locked boxes located away from buildings and tents. Large quantities of gasoline should be stored in a properly installed fuel tank with pump-out capability. Large quantities of kerosene should be stored in these tanks. Propane or butane storage tanks and permanent caps should be installed by experienced and knowledgeable individuals and changed only by gas distributors. These installations must conform to local regulations and must be inspected regularly.

USE SAFETY CANS ONLY!

Because serious accidents can happen in connection with the use of liquid fuel, propane, butane, etc., in lanterns and stoves and as a result of igniting fires with liquid starters, adult supervision is required when chemical fuels are being used for lighting and cooking. Local councils have the option of restricting the use of chemical-fueled stoves, lanterns, and heaters in campsites under their jurisdiction.

- Knowledgeable adult supervision must be provided when using lanterns and heaters and filling of fuel storage tanks, stoves or lanterns or the lighting of chemical fuels.
- Battery-operated lanterns and flashlights should be used by Scouts in camping activities, particularly in and around all tents. No chemical-fueled lantern, stove, or heater is to be used inside a tent.
- Kerosene, gasoline, or liquefied petroleum-fuel lanterns may, when permitted, be used inside permanent buildings or for outdoor lighting. When used indoors, there must be adequate ventilation. Strict adherence to the safety standards and the instructions of the manufacturers is required. The use of these devices must be supervised by a responsible and knowledgeable adult.
- Empty liquid-petroleum cylinders for portable stoves and lanterns should be returned home or to base camp. They can explode when heated; therefore, they must never be put in fireplaces or with burnable trash.
- The use of liquid fuels for starting any type of fire is prohibited. This includes camp wood, charcoal, and cer-

Year-Round Prevention Plan

4. Slow away firewood and loose equipment that might be used for starting fires.
5. Clear away dead grass or trees, ferns, leaves, bushes, straw piles, and trash from buildings.
6. Clean grease traps and dispose of the grease by burning it at a safe place or burying it in mineral earth.
7. Be sure the camp is ready for winter use. Check fuels, wall and floor protection around heaters, and protecting screens for fireplace application of fire pills, fire extinguishers, and mobile fire extinguishers.
8. Develop a fire prevention plan in accordance with OSHA standard 29 CFR 1910.139.

SKU 33881

Will your camp be there next season? This is a good question to ask. To make sure you have the best equipment and leave in harness to next year's campers, do everything that can be done to ensure the safety of camp equipment and camp timber.

Fall, with its dry, dead leaves that often bank high around camp buildings is, in many sections of the country, the most dangerous fire season of the entire year. Spring is another time when dry leaves and brush are a fire hazard.

- Here is a checklist of things to do at all times to be sure that your camp is fireproof year-round:
1. Destroy greasy rags.
 2. Dispose of all combustible refuse and trash safely.
 3. Be sure that doors and shutters are strong enough to keep out trespassers, vandals, or thieves.
