

Scouting America

Conservation & Community Service Awards

Please check individual requirements for each award

World Conservation Award

Who may earn it:

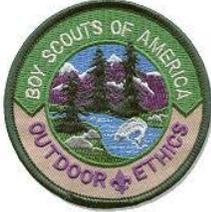

Cub Scouts Wolf, Bear, Arrow of Light, Scouts BSA, Venturers, and Sea Scouts

Conservation Good Turn Award

Who may earn it:

Cub Scout Packs, Scout Troops, Venturing Crews, and Sea Scout Ships

Scouting America Outdoor Ethics Award

Who may earn it:

Open to all Scouts in every program including adult leaders

National Outdoor Awards Program

Who may earn it:

Scouts BSA youth members, Venturers, and Sea Scouts

Historic Trails Program

Who may earn it:

Scouting America units, youth members, and adult Scouters.

James M. Stewart Good Citizen Award

Who may earn it:

Scouts BSA youth members

Scouting America Distinguished Conservation Service Award

Who may earn it:

Scouts BSA youth members, Venturers, and Sea Scouts

Scouting America Distinguished Conservationist Award

Who may earn it:

Adult Scouters

Scouting for Clean Waterways Patch

Who may earn it:

Open to all Scouts in every program including adult leaders

Scout Ranger Patch

Who may earn it:

Scouts BSA youth members only.

President's Volunteer Service Award

Who may earn it:

Individual volunteers of all ages, including youth and adults. Not Scouting but requires service hours

Scouting 250 Community Service Award

Who may earn it:

Youth members, adult Scouters, and Scouting America units.

Core Conservation & Environmental Merit Badges:

Environmental Science, Sustainability, Fish and Wildlife Management, Forestry, Energy, and Soil and Water Conservation

Ecology, Nature, and Natural Science Merit Badges:

Nature, Oceanography, Weather, Geology, Insect Study, Bird Study, Mammal Study, and Reptile and Amphibian Study

Are there More? Yes, and you can be creative!

Example: How about the Woodworking Merit Badge?

A: Yep, Requirements 6d and 6e – build Wood duck houses!