Whether you're attending Fall Festival, participated in camp or another council event during this special anniversary year, or simply want to show your Camp Wilderness pride, these shirts are a great way to commemorate your experience. Best of all, the online store remains open through September, so even if you miss ordering before the event, you'll still have time to purchase your keepsake. Orders ship directly to your home, making it easy for everyone, including those unable to attend Fall Festival, to join in celebrating 80 years of Camp Wilderness: Your Legacy. Your Camp.
