- Camp Friedlander's brand-new climbing wall
- Boating
- Additional camp activities and Scouting adventures
- Trading Post will be open during activity hours
- And more!

Activity availability may vary based on weather, staffing, participation, and event scheduling. Participants must follow all instructions provided by event staff, volunteers, range officers, and activity leaders.

EVENT RULES & DETAILS

1. The Adventure begins at flag raising and opening ceremony .
2. Follow all instructions provided by event staff and volunteers.
3. To participate in boating, Scouts and leaders will need to be classified as a Swimmer or be in a boat with an adult classified as a Swimmer. The Swim Classification Record, along with procedures to facilitate the test can be found here: Swim Classification Record.pdf
If your Scouts completed the swim test during summer camp, please fill out the record and list "Summer Camp" as the facilitator. Please remember that our lifeguards retain the right to re-test anyone to ensure standards are maintained.

4. Closed-toe shoes are required unless otherwise instructed for a specific activity.
 5. Dress appropriately for the weather and water activities.
 6. Follow all safety instructions while participating in climbing, shooting sports, and other adventure activities.
 7. Respect Camp Friedlander property, equipment, staff, volunteers, and fellow participants.
 8. Conduct yourself according to the Scout Oath and Scout Law.
 9. Each patrol will be required to have a song and skit prepared for campfire and will perform at one of the stations. Not all will be chosen for campfire but be prepared if you are called!
