

BADGE BOOSTERS AND MERITORIOUS MOMENTS

Our 125th building anniversary, known as the Cornerstone Celebration, is growing and we would like to assist scouts with a series of Badge Boosting (achievement) activities. Please see the attached list of badge opportunities (Tigers through to Eagle) for more information. Several activities require preregistration.

Interviews— June 2, 2018, is the celebration of the historical Richardsonian Romanesque Revival Style Armory's 125-year anniversary. The Cleveland Grays will recognize this event with special exhibits, armory tours, and walkabout excursions of Cleveland's historic sites. Veterans and active military from all branches will be on-hand to answer questions and accept interviews with preregistered scouts. Architects from the American Institute of Architects will also be on-hand to answer questions and accept interviews with preregistration.

Walkabouts— This day celebrates the 125-year anniversary of the 1893 placement of the Cornerstone laying at the foundation of the landmark Cleveland Grays Armory. In recognition of this historic occasion, scouts may register for one of two historic walkabouts. These will include the Armory, Erie Street Cemetery, the Soldiers & Sailors Monument, and various historic sites or Cleveland architecture as well as a few very special surprises. One Behind the Scenes at Playhouse Square Tour is also available with preregistration. Spaces are limited to 25 per tour. Early Registration is highly recommended.

Heritage Activities— During the Cornerstone Celebration, a patriotic participation area will contain stations for wrapping care packages, writing deployed soldiers, giving thanks to past and present military, and learning more about early military heritage.

Donations for Troops and Veterans— We are partnering with the USO and the Ohio National Guard to "Fill the Hummer" with care package items for deployed soldiers (please see page 3 for a list of the most needed items). In homeless shelters, one of the most requested and least donated items is socks. Today, a growing number of veterans find themselves in homeless shelters. Please bring new sock donations to the Armory on Cornerstone Day. Old Flags will also be accepted for retirement with dignity and respect. Please encourage, collect, and bring donations for USO Care Packages, new socks for homeless veterans, and old flags for retirement to this event.

Tiger Adventure–Tiger Tales

Badge Boosters & Meritorious Moments

1. Create a tall tale with your den.
2. Create your own tall tale. Share your tall tale with your den.
3. Read a tall tale with your adult partner.
4. Create a piece of art from a scene in the tall tale you have read, using your choice of materials. Share it with your den.
5. Play a game from the past.
6. Sing two folk songs.

Tiger Tales

7. Visit a historical museum or landmark with your adult partner.

The Cleveland Grays Armory Museum is a historical landmark museum located in downtown Cleveland. Our June 2, 2018 (12-4) Cornerstone Event is a free and public celebration of the 125-year old Cleveland Grays Armory Museum. Please join us as we celebrate this historical landmark.

Meets Requirement: 7, No registration needed

DONATIONS

Fill the Hummer

We are partnering with the USO to “Fill the Hummer” with items for care packages. The USO and the Ohio National Guard will be at the armory with a military hummer. Please encourage donations for this event. All items will be distributed in care packages by the USO.

Hometown Heroes
Send & Wrap
Care Packages

Socks for Homeless Veterans

In homeless shelters, one of the most requested and least donated items is socks. Today, a growing number of veterans find themselves in homeless shelters. Please encourage donations for this event. The Cleveland Grays will accept new socks for distribution to veteran facilities.

List of Care Package Items

Badge Boosters & Meritorious Moments

We are partnering with the USO and the Ohio National Guard to “Fill the Hummer” with care package items for deployed soldiers. Also, in homeless shelters, one of the most requested and least donated items is socks. Today, a growing number of veterans find themselves in homeless shelters. Please bring new sock donations to the Armory on Cornerstone Day. Old Flags will also be accepted for retirement with dignity and respect. Please encourage, collect, and bring donations for USO Care Packages, new socks for homeless veterans, and old flags for retirement to our Cornerstone Event.

Care Packages are generally assembled with a mixture of healthy treats, drink mixes, and a range of travel-sized hygiene products.

Healthy snacks include Jerky, trail mixes, nuts, granola bars, fruit snacks, and gum.

Also appreciated is microwavable food like Easy Mac, popcorn, Cup O’Noodles, Chef Boyardee, instant oatmeal and other snacks that come in their own bowl (dining ware is often scarce in deployed regions).

Additional suggestions include crackers, cookies, coffee, sports beverages and other non-perishable comfort items from home.

Drink mix packets: Gatorade, lemonade, iced tea and crystal light packets

Non-perishable food: Tuna cans or packets, fruit cups, peanut butter, Nutella, soups and other canned foods

Chocolate is not recommended during the summer months (it melts).

Toiletries: Travel-size shampoo, conditioner, body lotion, body wash, wet wipes and hand sanitizer. Toiletries should be wrapped separated from food (this prevents shampoo-flavored oatmeal!).

EXPRESSING GRATITUDE— The Heritage Activities Area will also contain tables for wrapping care packages, writing deployed soldiers, and giving thanks to past and present military.

Wolf Adventure—Hometown Heroes

Badge Boosters & Meritorious Moments

Hometown
Heroes

1. Talk with your family or den about what it means to you to be a hero. Share the name of someone you believe is a hero and explain what makes them a hero.
2. Visit a community agency where you will find many heroes and learn what they do. Share what you learned with your den.
3. With the help of a family member, interview one of your heroes, and share what you learn with your den. Explain what makes them a hero.
4. Complete one of the following:
  - 4a. As a den or family, honor a serviceman or servicewoman by sending a care package along with a note thanking them for their service.
  - 4b. With your family or den, find out about animals that are trained to help others in your community.

4c. Participate in or create an event that celebrates your hometown hero(es).

The Cornerstone Event is the 125th anniversary of the Cleveland Grays Armory and celebrates the legacy of the men and women of the American Armed Forces. All Scouts are encouraged to attend and learn about the contributions made by our Hometown Heroes, both yesterday and today. Veterans will be available for interviews. Care Package Donations for deployed service members are highly encouraged and will be accepted by the USO and National Guard. During Cornerstone, scouts and guests can help the USO wrap packages for deployment abroad and write notes thanking soldiers.

Meets Requirements: 2, 3, 4a, 4c

Boy Scouts – American Cultures Badge Boosters & Meritorious Moments

American
Cultures

Choose 3 groups with different racial, cultural, national, or ethnic backgrounds, one must come from your own background. Use these groups to meet requirements 1, 2, and 3.

1. Do TWO of the following, choosing a different group for each:
  - a. Go to a festival, celebration, or other event identified with one of the groups. Report on what you see and learn.
  - b. Go to a place of worship, school, or other institution identified with one of the groups. Report on what you see and learn.
  - c. Talk with a person from one of the groups about the heritage and traditions of the group. Report on what you learn.
  - d. Learn a song, dance, poem, or story that is traditional to one group, and teach it to a group of your friends.
  - e. Go to a library or museum to see a program or exhibit featuring one group's traditions. Report on what you learn.
2. Imagine that one of the groups had always lived alone in a city or country to which no other groups ever came. Tell what you think the city or country might be like today. Now tell what you think it might be like if the 3 groups you chose lived there at the same time.

3. Tell about some differences between the religious and social customs of the 3 groups. Tell about some ideas or ways of doing things that are similar in the three groups.
4. Tell about a contribution made to our country by 3 different people (each different in racial, ethnic, or religious background).
5. Give a talk to your Scout unit or school class on how people from different groups have gotten along together. Lead a discussion on what can be done to help various groups understand one another better.

Cornerstone celebrates the 180-year old traditions of the Cleveland Grays and America's historical militias. We invite scouts and families to join our festivities and learn about the heritage, traditions, and legacies of the Grays.

Meets Requirement for 1 group: 1a, 1b, 1c, 1d, 1e

No registration necessary

Boy Scouts – American Heritage

1. Read the Declaration of Independence. Pay attention to “We hold these truths to be self-evident” and ends with “to provide new Guards for their future security.” Rewrite that section in your own words, making it as easy to understand as possible. Then, share your writing with your merit badge counselor and discuss the importance of the Declaration to all Americans.
2. Do TWO of the following:
  - a. Select two individuals from American history, one a political leader (president, senator, etc.) and the other a private citizen (a writer, religious leader, etc.). Learn each person’s accomplishments and compare their contributions to America’s heritage.
  - b. With your counselor’s approval, choose an organization that has promoted positive change in American society. Find out why the organization believed this change was necessary and how it helped to accomplish it. Discuss how this organization is related to events or situations from America’s past.
  - c. With your counselor’s approval, interview two veterans of the U.S. military. Find out what their experiences were like. Ask the veterans what they believe they accomplished.
  - d. With a counselor’s approval, interview three people in your community of different ages and occupations. Ask each what America means to them, why they think America is special, and what traditions they feel are important to preserve.
3. Do the following:
  - a. Select a current news topic. Describe to your counselor what is happening. Explain how today’s events are related to or affected by the events and values of America’s past.
  - b. For each of the following, describe its adoption, tell about changes since its adoption, and explain how each influences Americans today: the flag, the Pledge of Allegiance, the seal, the motto, and the national anthem.
  - c. Research your family’s history. Find out how various events and situations in American history affected your family. If your family immigrated to America, tell the reasons why. Share what you learned with your counselor.
4. Do TWO of the following:
  - a. Explain what is meant by the National Register of Historic Places. Describe how a property becomes eligible for listing. Make a map of your local area, marking the points of historical interest. Tell about any National Register properties in your area. Share the map with your counselor, and describe the historical points you have indicated.
  - b. Research an event of historical importance that took place in or near your area. If possible, visit the place. Tell your counselor about the event and how it affected local history. Describe how

- the area looked then and what it now looks like.
- c. Find out when, why, and how your town or neighborhood started, and what ethnic, national, or racial groups played a part. Find out how the area has changed over the past 50 years and try to explain why.

American Heritage

- d. Take an active part in a program about an event or person in American history. Report to your counselor about the program, the part you took, and the subject.
  - e. Visit a historic trail or walk in your area. After your visit, share with your counselor what you have learned. Discuss the importance of this location and explain why you think it might qualify for National Register listing.
5. Do ONE of the following:
    - a. Watch two motion pictures (with the approval of your counselor and parent) that are set in some period of American history. Describe to your counselor how accurate each film is with regard to the historical events depicted and also with regard to the way the characters are portrayed.
    - b. Read a biography (with your counselor’s approval) of someone who has made a contribution to America’s heritage. Tell some things you do and don’t admire about this individual. Explain why you think this person has made a positive or a negative contribution to America’s heritage.
    - c. Listen to recordings of popular songs from various periods of American history. Share five of these songs with your counselor, and describe how each song reflects the way people felt about the period in which it was popular. If a recording is not available, have a copy of the lyrics available.
  6. Discuss with your counselor the career opportunities in American heritage. Pick one that interests you and explain how to prepare for this career. Discuss what education and training are required for this career.

In 1837, the Cleveland Grays formed to serve as peace officers and defend Ohio from a Canadian invasion. As their deeds grew, so did their adventures. From their origins as a local militia to the strength of their brotherhood, the Cleveland Grays grew from soldiers to powerful men. By 1900, their notoriety and cultural influence placed Cleveland on the world stage. They entertained presidents and hosted the most prestigious events during Cleveland’s most influential years and witnessed history through the eyes of an independent militia. Cornerstone (June 2, 2018) will be celebrated with special exhibits, armory tours, and urban excursions of Cleveland’s historic sites. Veterans and active military from all branches will be on-hand to answer questions and accept interviews with preregistration.

Meets Requirements: 1b, 1c, 4b, 4c, 4d, 4e
Preregistration for Veteran interviews is required.

Boy Scouts – Architecture

Badge Boosters & Meritorious Moments

1. Do the following:
  - a. Tour your community and list the different types of buildings you see. Try to identify buildings that can be associated with a specific period of history or style of architecture. Make a sketch of the building you most admire.
  - b. Select an architectural achievement that has had a major impact on society. Using resources such as the Internet (with your parent's permission), books, and magazines, find out how this achievement has influenced the world today. Tell your counselor what you learned.
2. In the Outdoor Code, a Scout pledges to "be conservation-minded."
Discuss the following with your counselor:
  - a. The term sustainable architecture. Identify three features typical of green buildings.
  - b. The difference between renewable building materials and recycled building materials, and how each can be used in construction.
  - c. The relationship of architecture with its surrounding environment and the community.
  - d. How entire buildings can be reused rather than torn down when they no longer serve their original purpose.
3. Do ONE of the following:
  - a. With your parent's and counselor's permission and approval, arrange to meet with an architect. Ask to see the scale model of a building and the drawings that a builder would use to construct this building. Discuss why the different building materials were selected. Look at the details in the drawings and the model to see how the materials and components are attached to each other during construction.
  - b. With your parent's and counselor's permission and approval, arrange to meet with an architect at a construction site. Ask the architect to bring drawings that the builder uses to construct the building. While at the site, discuss why the different building materials being used were selected. Discuss how the different building materials and components are attached to each other during construction.

Note: To visit a construction site will require advance planning. You will need permission from your parents, counselor, the architect, and the construction site manager. A construction site is a very dangerous place. While there, you will need to closely follow the site manager's directions and comply with all the safety procedures, including wearing a hard hat, protective eyewear, and proper footwear. Be aware of the changing conditions at the site, and stay with the architect or site manager.

- c. Interview someone who might be your client (such as a prospective homeowner or business owner) if you were an architect. Find out what your client's requirements would be for designing a new home or business building. Write a short program including a list of requirements for the project, the functions of the building and site, how the functions relate to one another, and the goals of the project.
4. Measure a room such as one where you live or where your troop meets. Make an accurately scaled drawing of the room's floor plan showing walls, doors, closets, windows, and any built-in furniture or cabinets. Neatly label your drawing with the following: your name, the date, what room you drew, and the scale of the drawing. (Drawing scale: 1/4 inch = 1 foot)
  5. Find out about 3 career opportunities in architecture. Pick 1 and find out the education, training, and experience required for this profession. Discuss this with your counselor, and explain why this profession might interest you.

The Cleveland Grays Armory Cornerstone Event is a celebration of the historical Richardsonian Romanesque Revival Style Armory's 125-year anniversary. This day will be celebrated with special exhibits, armory tours and urban walkabouts around downtown Cleveland's historic architecture and monuments. Architects from the American Institute of Architects will be on-hand to answer questions and accept interviews with preregistration.

Addresses Requirements: 1a, 1b, 3a, 5

What to Expect—Scouts must be supervised

Cornerstone is Free and Open to the Public, Saturday, June 2, 2018 12:00-4pm

How do Badge Boosters Work?

Each Badge Booster is intended to address the bolded requirements listed for the badge identified. If a badge requires your counselor's permission, please obtain it prior to June 2, 2018. With the exception of Walkabouts and the Playhouse Square Tour, every program takes place inside the Armory. Walkabouts will take place around downtown Cleveland. All programs are led by volunteers. Preregistered participants will be accommodated. Unregistered scouts, however, cannot be guaranteed space in walkabouts, the veteran and architect interviews, or heritage activities that require special staffing. Please see each Badge Booster listed for descriptions and preregistration requirements.

Preregistration for interviews and guided walkabouts are required. Please register by May 12, 2018. Limited spots are available. Once the spots are taken, accommodations cannot be guaranteed. Preregistered individuals will be guaranteed the opportunity to participate in walkabouts, interviews, or badge boosters. On June 2, 2018, the remaining openings will be filled on a first-come, first-serve basis. In order to ensure that we provide the necessary staffing, please make sure you register all scouts and adults for your program.

With the exception of the Behind the Scenes at Playhouse Square Tour which meets in KeyBank State Theatre lobby all registered participants meet inside the Armory. Interviewees and afternoon walkabouts must sign-in at the Heritage Welcome Table 15-minutes prior to each scheduled activity. If you do not sign-in, your spot may be awarded to scouts on the waiting list. Scouts should dress for the weather. Scouts must be accompanied by a supervising adult, observe traffic safety regulations, Leave No Trace Principles, and maintain the buddy system.

Is there a Cost? Admission to the Armory is free. Badge Boosting activities are free. Parking lots in and around the area charge various fees. Limited snacks may be available for purchase on Cornerstone Day (snack information not available at the time of this printing).

Do I have to attend the program with my scout or troop?

YES. Please be aware, Cleveland Grays Armory Cornerstone is not a drop-off program. Cornerstone is a one-day, family-friendly event that is open to the public. Scouts should attend with a parent, adult guardian or den leader. Most activities in the Heritage Area are designed for independent achievement. Volunteer assistance may be on-hand, but in most cases, scouts will NOT be monitored. Wolf Scouts preregistered for Finding your Way and Paws on the Path will receive a Walkabout Leader. Upon arrival, scouts preregistered for interviews must sign-in 15-minutes prior to their interview or their slot may be awarded to the waiting list.

When should we arrive?

Please leave yourself enough time to park & walk to scheduled events. Main Event is 1pm.

DONATIONS

Fill the Hummer

We are partnering with the USO to "Fill the Hummer" with items for care packages. The USO and the Ohio National Guard will be at the armory with a military hummer. Please encourage donations for this event. All items will be distributed in care packages by the USO.

Hometown Heroes
 Send & Wrap

Socks for Homeless Veterans

In homeless shelters, one of the most requested and least donated items is socks. Today, a growing number of veterans find themselves in homeless shelters. Please encourage donations for this event. The Cleveland Grays will accept new socks for distribution to veteran facilities.
