

2019 Spring Camporee

Jimmie O'Dell Gold Griddle Competition

The Meal:

1. Scouts should prepare their best UNIQUE ETHNIC dish (Country of origin must be included on recipe card when turned in.)
2. It should be a camp appropriate recipe, prepared at camp.

The Rules:

1. Must be prepared during the lunch period provided
2. Only Scouts are prepping the meal
3. Any adult help will disqualify the entry from your Troop/Patrol
4. No pre-cooking ingredients

Other Items:

1. A charcoal fire will be provided
2. Meal can be prepared in a Dutch oven or other suitable manner provided it is over the charcoal fire provided
3. As usual, a good-sized portion must be provided for the judges
4. Entries will be gathered by the Scout Judge's Panel at the Dining Hall Lunch Circle
5. Judges are experienced and trustworthy Scouts

What are the judges looking for?

Qualifying entries will be judged on:

- Taste
- Recipe card turned in
- Originality
- Suitable for camping

Helpful Hint:

Try your recipe on a campout before the event.
Be creative with your recipe!

