

Citizenship in the Nation MB (Eagle-Required) Candidate Prep List

NOTE: This MB requires Scout to have written (TYPED preferred) materials prepared & submitted in advance of the first video session

NUMBERS = Requirements (revised 2005 are not in order, but are as numbered as in MB book
ITEMS IN RED = > Counselor's comments

- BEFORE you begin this MB ... READ & understand the entire MB BOOK

NOTE: ALL eight (8) requirements will be COMPLETED IN WRITING and SUBMITTED via Google Classroom the DAY BEFORE the first session. This allows the counselor to choose from among the submissions to highlight during the online discussion. During the online session, each Scout will be required to explain, describe, discuss, etc. his/her written submissions. Each Scout must participate in the online discussion each session to receive credit for the requirements covered in that session.

Requirements (current rev. 2005) >>> Read ALL the req. before beginning this MB.
Note that some require work in advance of the online session; e.g., independent activity, visit or response. #2 involves going on a tour. #3 is a 5-day project. #8 takes about a month to get a response.

The following requirements to be done one (1) month or less ... IN ADVANCE ... of online session & POST your written comments on Google Classroom in the appropriate assignments:

- Do TWO of the following:
  - Visit a place that is listed as a National Historic Landmark or that is on the National Register of Historic Places. Tell your counselor what you learned about the landmark or site and what you found interesting about it.
  - Tour your state capitol building or the U.S. Capitol.
Tell your counselor what you learned about the capitol, its function, and its history.
  - Tour a federal facility. Explain to your counselor what you saw there and what you learned about its function in the local community and how it serves this nation.
  - Choose a national monument that interests you. Using books, brochures, the Internet (with your parent's permission), and other resources, find out more about the monument. Tell your counselor what you learned, and explain why the monument is important to this country's citizens.
- Watch the national evening news five days in a row OR read the front page of a major daily newspaper five days in a row. Discuss the national issues you learned about with your counselor. Choose one of the issues and explain how it affects you and your family.
- Name your two senators and a member of Congress from your congressional district. Write a letter about a national issue and send it to one of these elected officials, sharing your view with him or her. Show your letter to your counselor, along with any response you might receive. > It takes about a month to get a response. Use the email address, NOT the postal address. For OH Scouts, Sen. Sherrod Brown is an Eagle Scout and always answers your letter. Sen. Portman has yet to respond to any Scout for this MB.

At least 24 hrs. before the online session, POST your written comments for these requirements on Google Classroom in the appropriate assignments:

1. Explain what citizenship in the nation means and what it takes to be a good citizen of this country. Discuss the rights, duties, and obligations of a responsible and active American citizen.
4. Discuss each of the following documents with your counselor. Tell how you feel life in the United States might be different without each one. Then choose one document and explain how it impacts you and your family.
  - a. Declaration of Independence
  - b. Preamble to the Constitution
  - c. The Constitution
  - d. Bill of Rights
  - e. Amendments to the Constitution

> READ all of these documents and be prepared to discuss them.
5. List the six functions of government as noted in the preamble to the Constitution. Discuss with your counselor how these functions affect your family and local community.
6. With your counselor’s approval, choose a speech of national historical importance. Find out about the author, and tell your counselor about the person who gave the speech. Explain the importance of the speech at the time it was given, and tell how it applies to American citizens today. Choose a sentence or two from the speech that has significant meaning to you, and tell your counselor why.
7. Name the three branches of our federal government and explain to your counselor their functions. Explain how citizens can be involved in each branch. Explain the importance of our checks and balances system. Describe how each branch “checks” and “balances” the others.

+++++

NOTE: Scouts must participate verbally during each online session to receive credit for the requirements discussed. If a Scout has not submitted the written material in advance, he/she will need to post a lengthy report for each item to substitute for the EXPLAIN/DISCUSS portion of each requirement.
