

National Youth Leadership Training

Training youth leaders is important in helping the individual Scout and the unit grow. Scouting America has developed an advanced training experience that has proven valuable in training of youth leaders.

National Youth Leadership Training (NYLT) is an intensive, week-long camp experience for Scouts and Venturers. Each participant works through a series of indoor and outdoor challenges with the mentoring of highly skilled youth staff members. Participants are equipped with the basic skills necessary to become leaders in their unit and throughout their everyday lives.

NYLT is structured to represent a month in the life of a typical Scouting unit. Participants will sleep in the outdoors, prepare meals with their Teams, and live by the Scout Oath and Law.

This course is built around the BE-KNOW-DO of leadership:

What a leader must BE

What a leader must KNOW

What a leader must DO

What is NYLT?

NYLT is an advanced training course for all youth leaders in Scouting America, Venturing, Sea Scout and Exploring programs. Participants must have basic camping skills and the maturity to keep up with the fast pace of the program. Participants will be working with other Scouts in their team to accomplish daily camping tasks and meet the challenges presented by the course.

Practical Training

During this 6-day outdoor event you will live as a member of a Team, practice skills of leadership, and learn how these skills apply in your role as a leader in your unit. The course is structured to reflect a typical month in the life of an ideal unit. It combines a series of classroom sessions with practical experience challenges that are designed to build upon each other. The course is presented by youth leaders under the direction of the Course Leader.
