David Mulvey

Annual Family Campaign: Be a Unit Champion!

Invest in Character, our council's annual family campaign, receives contributions through an online donation platform. But the family campaign relies on Unit Champions to organize the campaign within the unit. They reach out to parents, families and alumni; explain the need; offer stakeholders the opportunity to support the mission of the Cradle of Liberty Council; and "make the ask." Learn how to perform this critical role. Do you have what it takes to be a Champion?

Maximum number of participants: 24

UofS226

Period 5 01:00-01:45 PM

Promoting Scouting's Culture of Safety

Scouting delivers real adventure with a culture of safety and risk management at its core. Every activity is guided by nationally developed safety standards, trained and background-checked adult leaders, and comprehensive youth protection policies. Parents enjoy peace of mind knowing that experiences are carefully planned, supervised, and designed to help their children grow safely and responsibly. We'll discuss creating (and maintaining) a culture of safety, as well as how to promote that culture to drive recruiting.

Roles for Your 18-20-Year-Old Scouters

Young Scouters age 18-20 can be valuable members of your unit, district, and council program teams, given their connections with the youth and their unique perspective on both youth and adult needs. However, shifting priorities in their lives and ambiguities in navigating their new adult role can make it challenging for them to stay connected to the scouting program. This session will be led by "seasoned" volunteer scouters and a younger council scouter to offer complementary perspectives, and is ideal for unit leaders, district leadership, or council program leaders interested in supporting and finding successful roles for these young scouters.
