Cub Scout Day Camp: The Sky's the Limit!

Cub Scout Day Camp is summer at its best. Picture a week packed with friends, games, crafts, camp songs, and adventures that only Scouting can deliver. It's where bug spray meets belly laughs, where imaginations run wild, and where kids come home a little muddy, a little tired, and completely happy.

Why should your Scout go? Because camp is the place where "I can't" turns into "I DID." It's where kids discover new skills, try things they never thought they could do, and build confidence one adventure at a time. Parents love it too—because a Scout who spends their day running, laughing, learning, and exploring is a Scout who falls asleep with a smile on their face and stories to tell.

And for summer 2026, our theme is The Sky's the Limit! No lectures, no textbooks—just sky-high fun and endless imagination. From the moment your Scout walks into camp, they'll be reaching for new goals, chasing big dreams, and proving that when it comes to adventure, the only ceiling is the sky above.

Mark your calendar, because adventure is calling, and this summer, it's headed straight up!
