

Induction Experience Weekend

New Member Packing List

Welcome to your Induction Experience with Atta Kulla Kulla Lodge!

The items below are everything you will need for the first portion of your Induction Experience. Please pack these items together as instructed below. Any additional gear or personal belongings should be packed separately and will be stored until they are needed.

What to Pack

Please bring the following items:

- Sleeping bag
- Ground cloth or tarp
- Toiletries and personal hygiene items
- Work clothes appropriate for outdoor service projects
- Pocketknife, if desired and permitted under Scouting America policies
- Rain gear
- Extra shoes
- Filled water bottle

You should also arrive in your official Scouting America field uniform (Class A) and with your completed Scouting America AHMR, as directed in the event registration information.

How to Pack Your Gear

Place all items listed above inside your sleeping bag.

Roll your sleeping bag with the ground cloth or tarp wrapped around the outside. Secure the entire bundle tightly with cord or string so that it can be easily carried.

Your remaining clothing, equipment, and personal belongings should be packed separately.

Be Prepared for the Outdoors

Your Induction Experience is designed to provide a meaningful outdoor experience. Weather permitting, you should be prepared to sleep outdoors using only the equipment you bring with you.

In the event of severe or inclement weather, appropriate shelter will be provided.

Please check the weather forecast before arriving at Camp Old Indian and come prepared for the expected temperatures and conditions.

Be Prepared

The gear you bring will help you stay comfortable, safe, and prepared as you begin your Induction Experience and your journey in the Order of the Arrow.

We look forward to welcoming you to Atta Kulla Kulla Lodge!
