Offering for the World Friendship Fund

The World Friendship Fund was developed by Scouting America during the closing days of World War II. At the time, there was a great need to rebuild Scouting in nations that had been wrecked by war and were just emerging from the shadows of totalitarianism. In the years that have elapsed, virtually every nation in the free world that has Scouting has been aided by the fund.

The World Friendship Fund of Scouting America offers a practical Good Turn opportunity for the organization's youth members and leaders. Cash contributions are used to assist Scouting through the World Organization of the Scout Movement and through national Scout associations in developing countries. Unit participation in the World Friendship Fund offers a unique annual service project to benefit our fellow Scouts around the world.

Closing Prayer:

Gracious Creator,
As our weekend at Camp Coker comes to an end, we are thankful for the adventures we've shared, the friendships we've made, and the lessons we've learned.
Guide us as we return to our homes, schools, and communities.
Help us recognize opportunities to be kind, courageous, honest, and helpful.
Give us wisdom to make good decisions, patience to understand others, and strength to stand up for what is right.
Keep our Scouts, leaders, and families safe as they travel home.
May the spirit of Scouting continue to shine through our actions each day.
Amen.

Scout Friendship Circle:

Scouts, form a friendship circle and let'srecite the Scout Oath Together .

Benediction – "Our Final assignment"

As we leave this place, may we walk with wisdom, lead with kindness, and serve with courage.
May we always be curious enough to seek the truth, brave enough to do what is right, and compassionate enough to help those around us.
May the beauty of nature remind us to be thankful, and may the friendships of Scouting remind us that we are never alone.
Go forward with open minds, caring hearts, and the determination to make the world a better place.
And Scouts, remember: Your next mission is simple. Do a Good Turn Daily!

Welcome and gathering

Good morning, Scouts, leaders, and families, and welcome to our Sunday morning Scout service here at Camp Coker!This weekend, you've been busy investigating our camp scene mystery. You've searched for clues, examined fingerprints, watched our K-9 investigators in action, and worked together to solve a mystery. Today, we're going to discover that the greatest clues aren't always the ones we see with our eyes. Sometimes, they're the kindness we show, the honesty we practice, and the courage we carry in our hearts. Let's begin our final investigation together.

Opening Prayer

Creator of this beautiful world, Thank you for bringing us together for this weekend of adventure, friendship, and learning. Thank you for the beauty of Camp Coker, the trees that surround us, the fresh air we breathe, and the friendships we have strengthened. As we gather this morning, help us to be curious in our learning, honest in our actions, kind in our words, and courageous in our choices. May we always seek the truth, help those in need, and leave every place better than we found it. - Amen.

Scripture Reading:

"For the Lord giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding." - Proverbs 2:6 (KJV)

Reflection Thought:

Scouts, think about what you've learned this weekend.
When our investigators arrived at a scene, they didn't immediately jump to conclusions. They looked carefully, gathered evidence, asked questions, and worked together.
Our scripture reminds us that wisdom and understanding are important gifts. Baaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaeing wise isn't just about knowing the right answers. It's also about knowing how to make the right choices.
Sometimes the clues in life are easy to recognize. When someone needs help, we can choose to be helpful. When someone feels left out, we can choose to be friendly. When we make a mistake, we can choose to be honest.
Those are the moments when our Scout Law becomes more than words we memorize. It becomes something we live.
The greatest mystery isn't discovering who did something wrong. It's discovering how each of us can do our best. Remember that every day presents a new case to solve: How can I make a difference?

Wisdom Reading:

A good detective knows that not every clue is easy to see.
Some clues are hidden beneath the surface. Others are discovered by listening carefully or paying attention to the smallest details.
Life is much the same.
You cannot always see kindness, but you can feel it when someone lends a helping hand.
You cannot always see trust, but you recognize it when someone keeps a promise.
You cannot always see courage, but you witness it when someone stands up for what is right.You cannot always see friendship, but you know it is there when someone stands beside you. As Scouts, we are investigators of the world around us. Every day gives us opportunities to discover goodness, share kindness, and lead by example.

As we sing the following song together, let's remember that just as we worked together to solve the mystery this weekend, being a Scout means we can depend on one another and help when someone needs it.

Song: "Lean on Me"

Lean on me, when you're not strong, And I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on.
For it won't be long 'Til I'm gonna need Somebody to lean on.
You just call on me brother, when you need a hand. We all need somebody to lean on. I might just have a problem that you'll understand. We all need somebody to lean on.Lean on me, when you're not strong, And I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on.
For it won't be long 'Til I'm gonna need Somebody to lean on.

Responsive Reading: Leader reads the questions; all Scouts respond together.
Leader: When we see someone who needs help, what clue should guide our actions?
Scouts: A Scout is helpful!
Leader: When we meet someone who is different from us, how should we treat them?
Scouts: A Scout is friendly and kind!
Leader: When we are faced with a difficult choice, what should we remember?
Scouts: A Scout is trustworthy and brave!
Leader: When we enjoy the beauty of the outdoors, what responsibility do we have?
Scouts: A Scout is clean and respectful!
Leader: When things don't go our way, how should we respond?
Scouts: A Scout is cheerful!
Leader: And when we leave Camp Coker today, what will we take with us?
Scouts: The Scout Oath, the Scout Law, and the spirit of Scouting!
Leader: Our investigation is nearly complete. What is the greatest clue of all?
Everyone: Doing what is right, even when no one is watching!
