Campsites – Campsites will be assigned based on pre-registration of unit size. We will make every effort to keep district units together. You will likely share a campsite with other units. Please be mindful when you begin setting up your tents. We will share campsite assignments as soon as possible.

Arrival of Scouts – Registrations/Check-in opens at 6:00 pm on Friday at Headquarters. A map of the campgrounds showing the camping and activity locations will be provided at registration. Check-in will close at 8:00 p.m. If your unit will arrive later than 8:00 p.m., please contact Kathy Davis via email prior to November 7.

Only participants actually arriving with your group can be checked in with your unit. Late or early arrivals/those arriving the following day must check in individually.

Unit Leader/SPL Meeting – There will be a brief informational meeting at 9:00 pm on Friday evening in the dining hall. All units should be represented at the meeting. Please send your Cubmaster or other responsible leader to the meeting. For troops that are assisting with staffing, the SPL, Acting SPL, and Scoutmaster should plan to attend. We will share any updates to the activity schedule, share any current information regarding camp facilities, and answer any questions you may have during this meeting.

Parking – No vehicles are allowed in campsites. Upon arrival Friday evening, you will be allowed to drop your gear at your campsite, but then all vehicles must be returned to the main parking lot. The parking lot by the activity center will be closed as we will be using that area for program logistics.

The entry gate will close at 9:00 p.m. on Friday evening and remain closed throughout the day on Saturday. Campers arriving on Saturday will be able to drop gear and set up camp after 3:30 p.m. on Saturday.

If you have a trailer that is needed in your campsite, the event staff and ranger may grant permission for the towing vehicle to remain in the campsite depending on weather and attendance at camp. Please ask upon check-in.

If you have a mobility issue and are seeking special accommodation, you must confer with the Staff Advisor and receive permission from the ranger.

Uniform – A field uniform is appropriate for flag ceremonies, campfires, and religious ceremonies. If you have a field uniform (sometimes referred to as a Class A), please plan to wear it for these activities. For all other activities an activity t-shirt (sometimes referred to as Class B) or other Scouting appropriate shirt is appropriate.

Please do not hesitate to attend any part of camp if you do not yet own a field uniform! All are welcome.

Interfaith/Scout's Own service – All Scouts and Scouters are encouraged to host an Interfaith Worship Service for your unit. There will be no scheduled service on Sunday morning. Please be respectful of those around you and limit your camp breakdown or activities during service being held in other parts of your campsite.

Break-Down of Camp – The gate will be open at 7:30 a.m. on Sunday to allow vehicles to go to campsites to load gear. Please help us to limit traffic at campsites and do not bring your vehicle down until you are all packed and ready to load your vehicle.

Campsite Inspection – Before your unit departs camp, a staff member will come by to inspect your campsite. This will include ensuring that all trash is picked up, that all personal items have been removed from the campsite and latrines, and that all camp property is still in place at camp.

Checkout/Departure from Camp – Once your campsite has been inspected, you must check out at headquarters before departure. You should not check out until you are actually leaving the camp property.

Garbage Disposal – Please take all trash to the dumpster beside the dining hall or pack your trash out with you.

Yard Games- Midway

- Ladder Golf
 - Ladder golf, also known as ladder toss, ladder ball, or ball and ladder, is a lawn game that involves players throwing bolas (two balls or golf balls connected by a string) onto a ladder to earn points. The game can be played with two or more people or in teams, and the objective is to be the first to score 21 points. The number of points earned depends on which rung of the ladder the bola lands on, with the top rung typically worth 3 points, the middle worth 2, and the bottom worth 1. Ladder golf combines fun and fitness.
- Hula Hoops
 - Start by standing with your feet shoulder-width apart. Place the hoop around your waist. Push the hoop forward and slightly upward with your hips to start the motion. Use a rhythmic motion to keep the hoop spinning by shifting your weight from one foot to the other.
 - This is a fun, low-impact workout that strengthens your core, eases lower back discomfort, boosts cardiovascular health, and even supports better mood and flexibility.
- Sack Races
 - Participants hop in burlap sacks and race to a designated finish line. Health benefits of the sack race include improved cardiovascular health, coordination, muscle tone, and more.
- Tug of War
 - This game pits at least two players on either side trying to pull the other past a mid-point using a rope in between. Tug of War is a versatile activity that promotes physical fitness, teamwork, and mental engagement.
- Frisbee

- Corn Hole
 - Playing cornhole offers a wide range of health benefits, including physical improvements, mental stimulation, and opportunities for social connection. This accessible and low-impact game is suitable for people of all ages and fitness levels.
- Tic Tac Toe
 - Playing tic-tac-toe provides several health benefits, primarily focusing on cognitive, social, and emotional development. It improves cognitive skills like strategic thinking, problem-solving, and memory. Socially, it encourages turn-taking, fair decision-making, and sportsmanship. Emotionally, it helps players learn to handle the outcomes of winning and losing gracefully.

- Hopscotch

- Playing hopscotch provides numerous physical, mental, and social health benefits, including improved balance, coordination, and gross motor skills from jumping and hopping. It also strengthens leg and core muscles, boosts confidence, enhances cardiovascular health, and develops social skills like turn-taking and patience. Mentally, it can help with focus, problem-solving, and cognitive skills like understanding number sequences.

LAST MINUTE TIPS FOR HAVING A GREAT EXPERIENCE AT CAMP

- A Scout is Helpful, Friendly, and Kind

Remember that many of our families attending are brand new to Scouting. They may not be familiar with Scouting rules, policies, and procedures. If you see someone who could use a hand, please give them a hand! If you are concerned that additional intervention is required, please find an Event Lead or the Staff Advisor.

- A Scout is Courteous

Activities can get crowded! If there is a longer than anticipated wait, please come back at a later time. This is especially important at our shooting sports activities. Please take only one turn at each discipline to allow all our participants to have a turn.

- A Scout is Clean

There are restroom facilities, latrines, and portapotties across camp. We make every effort to ensure that all facilities are clean, well-stocked, and well maintained. Please help us to keep them that way. If you find a problem, please let a staff member know.

- A Scout is a Sardine??

Well, maybe not quite a sardine. But we will be in close quarters at our campsites. Please be mindful that you are likely going to be sharing campsites with other units, so keep your tents close and keep room for others that are camping in your site.
